Finalists announced for Athletes of the Year

Ten student athletes from Siuslaw and Mapleton high schools will be recognized tonight, May 31, as the finalists for the Coast Radio/Siuslaw News/Sports Club Athletes of the Year.

One boy and one girl will be given this year's awards that have been presented annually since 1989.

Among the six male athletes who are finalists are Hunter Simington from Mapleton, along with Jared Brandt, Trent Reavis, Brogan Cornish, Jack Pickell and Richard Huff from Siuslaw.

Celie Mans, Destinie Tatum, Claire Waggoner and Carissa Oliver, all of Siuslaw, are the four young female athletes who achieved the same honor.

In all, 38 different students were presented with either the Athlete of the Week or Honorable Mention between September and May.

Six of the 10 finalists competed in three sports this year;

four of them won individual state championships.

All received recognition from coaches in either the Mountain West or Far West Leagues for their hard work and skill.

The 10 finalists, plus the 28 others who received weekly honors, will be recognized during tonight's recognition dessert hosted by the Siuslaw Athletic Boosters, which begins at 6:30 p.m.

The Athlete of the Year awards will be announced and presented.

There is no charge for admission and the evening is open to all.

Sports Club members support the weekly program with recognition in every Wednesday edition of the Siuslaw News, and throughout the week on Coast Radio KCST/KCFM.

Those members include Central Coast Disposal, Alan Twombly Florence H&R Block, The River House and Old Town Inns, J.L. Walker and Sons, Wind Drift Kites, The Bridgewater Restaurant, Full Spectrum Computers, Best for Hearing, Dutch Bros, County Transfer and Recycling, Foglio Drop Box Service, Pavilion Catering, Old Town Barber Shop, Florence RV and Automotive Specialists, Leisure Excavating, Shervin's Automotive, Regency Florence, Cascade Title Company, The Salvation Army, and Randy's Riverview Market and Deli.

Lions look to land bass this weekend

The Florence Siuslaw Lions Club will be hosting its 35th annual Elliott Fun Bass Tournament the weekend of June 3 and 4.

Named in memory of long-time Lions Club member George Elliott, who originated the fundraiser as a joint venture with the Flornece Bass Club, the tournament will be held at Darling's Resort on Siltcoos Lake.

Two-person teams will launch at 6 a.m. and fish until weigh-in at 2 p.m. both days, with all fish to be released back into the lake. Trophies will be presented after Sunday's weigh-in.

Contest entry fee is $60 per team.

During the two-day tournament, the Lions Club will be serving hamburgers and hot dogs from its food wagon. There will also be tickets available for a special raffle on Saturday. Raffle prizes will include items donated by

Annual Surfriders' youth surfing competition June 17

NEWPORT — The Surfrider Foundation's Newport, Siuslaw and Portland Chapters have announced they will be hosting the ninth annual Otter Rock 'n' Roll Youth Surf Competition and Beach Cleanup Challenge in celebration of International Surfing Day.

Observed globally, International Surfing Day celebrates the sport of surfing and helps raise awareness about issues facing our ocean, waves and beaches.

The Otter Rock n Roll will take place Saturday, June 17, at Otter Rock/Devil's Punchbowl State Park from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. An age-18-and-under youth surf contest, the event is open to surfers of all skill levels, is family-friendly and welcomes the general beachgoing public.

Event pre-registration is $25 at

A WEEKLY FISHING REPORT FOR THE LOCAL REGION

www.dfw.state.or.us/RR

NORTH COAST LAKES:

Most of the North Coast lakes were stocked with trout recently. Water temps are great and fish should be hungry, so go catch them.

MID COAST LAKES:

Mid coast lakes are being stocked and are fishing well. The 2017 trout stocking schedule is available online.

ALSEA RIVER AND BAY:

Steelhead
The Alsea River and listed tributaries closed for hatchery steelhead on May 1 to protect spawning wild steelhead.

SALMON RIVER:

Steelhead
The Salmon River closed for wild and hatchery steelhead on March 31 to protect spawning wild steelhead.

SILETZ RIVER:

Steelhead, Chinook
The Siletz River opened for wild Chinook on April 1 (1 per day and 2 per season). A few summer steelhead are starting to be caught in the lower river.

Drift boaters are having success from Moonshine Park to Siletz and bank anglers are catching hatchery fish in the Siletz gorge.

Casting spinners, drifting bait or using a bobber and jig can be effective.
