Evangelical church to hold sale and car wash

The Florence Evangelical Church is holding a fundraising rummage sale on Saturday, June 3, at 1318 Rhododendron Dr.

The church is located on the corner of Laurel and Rhody, one block off of Highway 101, and is seeking donations of gently used items such as toys, books, tools, household items and clothing to sell at the fundraiser.

The church will also be conducting a car wash at the Sears's parking lot from 10 to 2 p.m. on the same day, if weather permits.

Proceeds from this annual sale help to pay tuition for young people to attend church camp each summer.

If community members have items to donate to the sale contact Rob at 541-997-5159 to arrange for pickup of the donation.

June 10 auction and raffle to benefit ill 11 year old

Siuslaw fifth-grade student Malakai Kirk, son of Mark and Laurie Stone, has dealt with symptoms of an immune-deficiency disorder his whole life. Recently he received an unsettling diagnosis; he has DOCK8 deficiency, hyper IgE syndrome, which has only been documented on less than 200 occasions.

The "Gifts of the Heart Auction- A Night of Giving" will be held on Saturday, June 10, in the Siuslaw Middle School commons to raise funds to assist with expenses associated with Malakai's surgery.

The auction opens at 5 p.m. and bids will be accepted until 7p.m.

Everyone in the community is welcome and encouraged to attend. Admission is free and all of the proceeds will be deposited into "Malakai's Bone Marrow Transplant" fund at Oregon Pacific Bank.

Among other symptoms,

MARK BRENNAN/SIUSLAW NEWS

Mark Stone, Malakai Kirk, and Laurie Stone are preparing for Malakai's upcoming bone marrow transplant.

Malakai doesn't make antibodies, so needs to have a monthly antibody transfusion to give his system some protection.

Malakai needs a bone marrow transplant and has to go through chemotherapy to kill off the dysfunctional cells causing his illness.

Then, after the bone marrow transplant surgery has occurred, the new bone marrow will take hold and give his immune system a start.

The Stones' out of pocket expense for the Bone Marrow Transplant procedure could top $100,000

Other major expenses will be for additional medical procedures each month at the hospital.

These will include costs for his antibody transfusion, travel expenses for his family, food and housing. Another concern is the loss of income the family will suffer because Malakai's mother will not be able to work while she stays with him during recovery.

To donate an item for the auction, please contact Karen Perry at 541-991-6354 or kaperry1@gmail.com.

Celebration of Life

A Celebration of Life for Charlie Kimball will be held on June 3 at 2 p.m. It will be at the Meeting Hall on Woahink Lake in Honeyman State Park. Charlie passed away December 24th and this is a time for family and friends to gather to remember him.

Donations may be made in his name to the Siuslaw Public Library.

Garden Club awards scholarships to local students

At the Siuslaw High School Awards ceremony held May 25, the Florence Garden Club awarded three scholarships to graduating seniors.

Gabe Wells was awarded $1,000 for his Forestry major. Wells will attend Lane Community College then transfer to Oregon State University.

Brandy Dalbeck was awarded $1,000 to attend the Oregon Coast Culinary Institute with the eventual goal of having her own restaurant using farm-to-table sourcing.

Michael Larson was awarded $1,000 for his Food Science and Technology major at Oregon State University.

Since 1994, the Florence Garden Club has given more than $56,000 in scholarship awards to qualified students in Florence and Mapleton whose educational goals lead to a career in a horticulture or environment related field.

committee and Garden Club member Carol Jolley. "It's community support and the dedication of Garden Club members that provides the money for these awards."

Siuslaw Jam to bring jazz greats, comedy to Florence

The Florence Events Center (FEC) will host two evenings of music and comedy, as well as a free young people's concert, featuring some of the world's best and up-and-coming jazz musicians.

The Siuslaw Jam will be held Friday, July 7, and Saturday, July 8, at the FEC.

Friday's 7 p.m. performance will feature an evening of songs, stories and laughter with jazz clarinetist and saxophonist Ken Peplowski and friends sharing "tales from the road," playing music together and taking questions from the audience.

Legendary comedian Pete Barbutti opens the show with a performance of the timeless comedy that made him a regular on The Tonight Show.

Saturday's performances open with a free, 2 p.m. "Introduction to Jazz" matinee hosted by Barbutti and Peplowski. Critically acclaimed recording and international touring artist Clairdee will also perform.

Young musicians are encouraged to bring their instruments, as the concert will finish with a jam session for the whole audience.

Saturday's 7 p.m. performance will focus on Jazz and the American Popular Songbook with selections from Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald and Lena Horne
