A DAY OF REEL FUN

BY NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

Last Saturday throughout Oregon, anyone wanting to cast a fishing line, drop a crab pot or dig up shellfish could do so without a license during the state's annual Free Fishing Day. The event, aimed at encouraging Oregonians to get outside and explore the hundreds of fisheries, included dozens of activities at state parks.

The event sold out with a cost of $89 per-player, which included the entry fee, golf cart, hot dogs, beverages, awards, a barbecue and raffle prizes.

Two of the Hole-in-One prizes included a Pebble Beach Golf Vacation and a 2017 Ford F150. Entrants also participated in a Million Dollar Shoot Out Challenge and a $5,000 putting contest.

During the annual helicopter golf ball drop fundraiser, Pamela Henry got a "hole-in-one" for $1,500 and Woody

A WEEKLY FISHING REPORT FOR THE LOCAL REGION

www.dfw.state.or.us/RR

MID COAST LAKES:

Most of the North Coast lakes were stocked with trout recently. Water temps are great and fish should be hungry, so go catch them!

The 2017 trout stocking schedule is available online.

ALSEA RIVER: Trout

Trout season opened May 22, and there should be some nice cutthroat around.

Remember the limit on streams and rivers is two per day over 8-inches.

SALMON RIVER: Steelhead

The Salmon River closed for wild and hatchery steelhead on March 31 to protect spawning wild steelhead.

SILETZ RIVER: Steelhead, Chinook, trout

The Siletz River opened for wild Chinook on April 1 (1 per day and 2 per season). Spring Chinook and summer steelhead are being caught. Drift boaters are having success from Moonshine Park to Siletz and bank anglers are catching hatchery fish in the Siletz gorge.

Casting spinners, drifting bait or using a bobber and jig can be effective.

Trout season opened May 22, and there should be some nice cutthroat around.

Remember the limit on streams and rivers is two per day over 8-inches.

SIUSLAW RIVER: Trout

Trout season opened May 22, and there should be some nice cutthroat around.

Remember the limit on streams and rivers is two per day over 8-inches.

WILSON RIVER: Steelhead, Spring Chinook, trout

Spring Chinook fishing has been slow on the Wilson, but there should be some fish around and it should improve throughout the month. There should also be some summer steelhead in the system.

Trout season opened May 22, and there should be some nice cutthroat around.

Remember the limit on streams and rivers is two per day over 8-inches.

YAQUINA RIVER: Trout

Trout season opened May 22, and there should be some nice cutthroat around.
