Vik 3-day home tourney tips off Friday

BY NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

It's been five years since the hardwood at Glenn Butler Court echoed with the dribble of basketballs and shriek of high-performance shoes this late in June. But come this weekend, the courts in the main and auxiliary gyms will be home to 24 varsity and JV teams competing from 17 schools during the first Oregon Dunes Basketball Tournament hosted by Siuslaw High School's boys basketball and cheerleading teams.

"The tournament came about because we wanted to get our kids as many opportunities to play basketball this summer as we could," said boys coach Dylan Perry, whose team advanced to the opening round of state competition for the first time in nearly a decade last March.

With the bulk of last season's lineup returning next year, Perry said he wanted to establish something that players could get excited about and motivate them to work on their game over the summer.

MID COAST LAKES:

Most of the North Coast lakes were stocked with trout recently. Water temps are great and fish should be hungry, so go catch them!

The 2017 trout stocking schedule is available online.

ALSEA RIVER: Trout

Trout season opened May 22, and there should be some nice cutthroat around.

Remember the limit on streams and rivers is two per day over 8-inches.

SALMON RIVER:

Steelhead
The Salmon River closed for wild and hatchery steelhead on March 31 to protect spawning wild steelhead.

SILETZ RIVER:

Steelhead, Chinook, trout

ANNUAL YOUTH SURFING COMPETITION SATURDAY

NEWPORT — The SurfRider Foundation's Newport, Siuslaw and Portland Chapters will be hosting the ninth annual Otter Rock 'n' Roll Youth Surf Competition and Beach Cleanup Challenge in celebration of International Surfing Day on June 17.

Observed globally, International Surfing Day celebrates the sport of surfing and helps raise awareness about issues facing our ocean, waves and beaches.

The Otter Rock n Roll will take place Saturday at Otter Rock/Devil's Punchbowl State Park from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. An age-18-and-under youth surf contest, the event is open to surfers of all skill levels, is family-friendly and welcomes the general beachgoing public.

Event pre-registration is $25 at www.otterrockandroll.com. Space is limited so sign up early to reserve a spot.

Beach registration is $35 and closes at 8 a.m.

All participants will receive an event T-shirt and prizes from local sponsors. There will be beach games and activities throughout the day including a special beach cleanup challenge, where youth can compete for different prizes through various stewardship activities.
