Public invited to librarian retirement party

The Friends of the Siuslaw Library invite the public to attend a retirement party in honor of longtime librarian, Linda Weight, on Saturday, June 24, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., in the Bromley Room.

Refreshments will be provided. This event is free and open to the public.

During her tenure, Weight has worn many hats for the Siuslaw Library District, including LAN Administrator, Volunteer Coordinator, Collection Developer, Cataloger and Reference Librarian.

"Many of these vital skills were acquired out of necessity, and in response to the needs of the district," said Library Director Meg Spencer.

In 2003, the Oregon Library Association recognized Weight with the Library Employee of the Year award. Over her 31 years at the library, Weight has seen the formation of the Siuslaw Public Library District and the addition of the Mapleton branch and its service area.

She is the only current staff member to work in the library's former location inside Florence City Hall.

"We hope that all community members who know Linda will stop in to say goodbye," said Spencer. "She will be missed by staff, patrons, volunteers."
