

Deadwood Pioneer Cemetery seeks family members' aid

Deadwood Pioneer Cemetery has been awarded $5,860 from the Oregon Parks and Recreation Department's Historic Cemeteries Grant program.

This money will be used to buy 35 headstones to place permanent markers on known graves that are unmarked or temporarily marked in the Deadwood Pioneer Cemetery, located just off Highway 36 on Deadwood Creek Road.

The markers will be flat gray granite, custom-engraved stones, 16 inches by 8 inches by 3 inches.

The list of names whose markers will be ordered include: Almasie, Bear, Beers, Burnett, Gallup, Leep, Light,

May, Monroe, Rust, Scoggins and Wills.

"We would like to be in contact with family members to confirm engraving before placing the order," said Deadwood Pioneer Cemetery Secretary Megan Gerber. "People who are possibly related to these family names are asked to contact me directly as soon as possible; we'd like to place the order by July 3."

Anyone who thinks they may be related to the listed family members, and anyone interested in volunteering, donating or researching are encouraged to email deadwoodcem@gmail.com, or call 541-964-3345.

Concert to benefit PHPH Palliative Care program

Palliative care is an approach that improves the quality of life of patients and their families facing the problems associated with life-threatening illness, through the prevention and relief of suffering by means of early identification and treatment of pain.

It also addresses physical, psychosocial and spiritual aspects. It is the care that a patient receives when they don't qualify for Home Health and are not ready for Hospice.

On June 30, at 7 p.m., a special folk music concert sponsored by Peace Harbor Medical Center and hosted at the Florence Events Center will raise funds for this unique program and its expansion of services beyond Florence and into Mapleton and the other up-river communities.

To do this, philanthropy will be a major funding source due to the lack of reimbursements from most insurance providers as well as Medicare and Medicaid.

The concert won't be "selling" tickets but will be requesting a donation of at least $25 per person.

Among those performing will be:

Mike and Carleen McCornack: From Eugene, the duo has shared their musical artistry with grateful audiences for more than four decades. From coffee houses to concert halls, the McCornacks' beautifully crafted songwriting comes to life in their music with superb vocal harmony and sparkling guitar accompaniment that touches the heart and never fails to tickle the funny bone. They are award-winning songwriters and two-time winners of the Florence Winter Folk Festival's People's Choice Award.

Kray Van Kirk: A singer-songwriter delivering performances that the Borderline Folk Club in New York called "...what every singer-songwriter should aspire to," his creative writing, guitar artistry and wonderful voice leaves audiences asking for more.

His warm and intimate concerts on six- and 12-string guitars have received critical praise from the house concert circuit to festivals and larger stages.

He has just released his first CD:

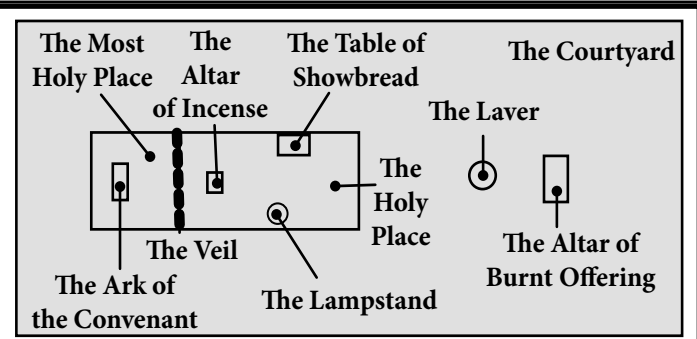

The Road To Elfland.

Hank Payne and Claire Favro: A delightful couple from Poulsbo, Wash., this tight-harmony duo (with guitars and bowed psaltery), perform songs from all over the acoustic world. Their concerts are a mixture of pop, jazz, gospel and folk (original, traditional, and/or contemporary) but always great harmonies and instrumentals.

The New Folksters: A group of folk singers from Eugene who combine wonderful harmony with hot instrumentals. The group includes Hal Weiner (guitar, banjo, uke, vocals), Keith Barr (6- and -2 string guitar, vocals), and Beverly Schriver (kazoo, egg shaker, vocals).

Their performances are fun and include 60s folk songs, contemporary folk tunes, rollicking jugband and ragtime ditties. They have been compared to The Kingston Trio, The Limelites and The Rooftop Singers.

How much do you know about the Tabernacle of the Old Testament? How does the Tabernacle relate to the church of the New Testament?

When we understand the Tabernacle, it will help us to understand the redemptive work of God that is brought out in Scripture.

Watershed Council meeting to be at Blachly Grange

The Siuslaw Watershed Council's general meeting will be held Wednesday, June 28, at the Grange in Blachly, Ore.

The Blachly Grange is on the Blachly Grange Rd., near the Triangle Lake Schools campus. Doors open at 6 p.m. and the meeting gets underway at 6:30 p.m.

With dam safety in mind, BLM Siuslaw Field Manager Cheryl Adcock will talk about the preparation of an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) to ensure a safe environment downstream from the dam along Lake Creek.

BLM will also look at the effects the dam and reservoir have on recreation, sensitive wetlands plants, listed fish, revenue to local communities and cultural and historic values.

USGS Research Wildlife Biologist, Dave Simon, will update the Council on barred owls competition that is causing rapid declines in populations of northern spotted owls.

A California study showed that removal of barred owls in combination with habitat conservation may be able to slow or even reverse population declines of spotted owls, but it remains unknown whether similar results can be obtained locally.
