

USCG Auxiliary offering Vessel Safety Checks

The Coast Guard Auxiliary recommends a vessel safety check (VSC) for everyone, even experienced boaters.

It helps prepare mariners for a safe boating season. This Monday, July 3, auxiliary members are offering VSCs for recreational boaters at the Port of Siuslaw from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The exam only takes about 15 minutes and potentially reduces boating risks for boat owners and passengers.

Boat owners will be asked questions about the boat and safety equipment will be checked. Vessels passing safety checks are awarded a U.S. Coast Guard/Auxiliary decal that informs boating agencies when boats are in compliance with boating equipment laws for 2017.

There is no charge for this service and no penalty for boats that don't pass.

Unitarian Universalists discuss self creation

The Rev. Dr. Marcia Pearce will lead the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship worship service on Sunday, July 2, from 10 to 11 a.m. The title of Pearce's message is, "Self Creation: Loving One's Self Through the Journey."

Pearce said, "We create ourselves anew in every moment. This allows us to decide what type of person we want to be, and make the appropriate choices. Circumstances don't determine who we are and what we become. We do. We all want to express the best of us."

The UU Fellowship is located at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road and is wheelchair accessible.

Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each service. For more information, visit florenceuu.org or call 541-997-2840.
