

New Life Lutheran honors nursing student

In May, the New Life Lutheran Legacy and Endowment Commission granted another scholarship to Ileen Berkshire, a third-year nursing student.

Berkshire was given a check for $750.

The commission was established to be able to share income from investments as scholarships given to deserving students.

The commission chose Berkshire in 2015 for a $500 grant, and this year was able to support the student once again with an additional award.

Berkshire has been working to achieve her goal of becoming a Registered Nurse to help others as well as her own family.

Each year at this time, the New Life Lutheran Legacy honors one or more students with scholarships and grants to groups benefiting the community.

For more information, call the New Life Lutheran Church, 21st and Spruce streets, at 541-997-8113.

Spirituali-Tea discusses 'women's intuition'

On Monday, July 10, at 6:30 p.m., the community is invited to join a friendly group from diverse spiritual paths looking to share spiritual paths.

The gathering will meet at the home of James and Suzanne Heintz, 875 Seventh St. Normal participation is 12 to 20 people.

The topic to be discussed is

"Women's Intuition."

Bring thoughts on the subject for open discussion.

The gathering will end at 8 p.m., with prayers for the requests left in the Prayer Pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse and those shared by the group.

For more information, call Suzanne at 541-590-0779.
