

Mae Trio Northwest Tour to stop in Florence Sunday

The Mae Trio, which performs a blend of harmonies by three young women from Melbourne, Australia, will make a stop in Florence Sunday, July 30, during their Pacific Northwest Tour. The trio will perform at the new Maple Street Theatre, 184 Maple St., at 7:30 p.m.

The Mae Trio is comprised of Maggie Rigby (banjo, ukulele and guitar), her sister Elsie Rigby (violin, ukulele) and Anita Hillman (cello and bass), as they combine their vocals to present a unique contemporary twist on folk music.

Their debut album, "Housewarming" (2014), earned them the Folk Alliance

Australia Youth Award and NFSA Folk Recording of the Year and saw them tour Australia, Canada, the U.S. and Europe.

Their most recent album, "Take Care, Take Cover" was released in April and features the hit single "Well Enough Alone."

Don't miss this rare opportunity to enjoy the magical musical sound of The Mae Trio live.

Tickets are $10 and are available online at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/3046086 and at the door the night of the event.

FUUF to discuss 'loving your life' Sunday

Victoria Destiny Walker will lead the worship service titled, "Love Your Life" on Sunday, July 30, from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, 87738 Highway 101.

Walker has worked primarily with women who have experienced generational poverty and various forms of abuse.

She's been a lifecoach for the last three years, helping others discover their unique path toward loving their lives.

Walker will talk about her main principles of faith, which are: acceptance of one another; encouraging others' spiritual growth; realizing each of us are unique spiritual beings; and that each of us has the ability to design, build and live the life we love.

The UU Fellowship is wheelchair accessible, and each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each service.

Visit FUUF's website at www.florenceuuf.org for more information, or call 541-997-2840.
