

FUUF applies 'Reason'

The Rev. Dr. Ruth Miller will lead a worship service at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship (FUUF) on Sunday, Aug. 13 from 10 till 11 a.m.

The title of her talk is "Applying Emerson's Reason Today."

"Ralph Waldo Emerson encouraged us to rely heavily on Reason as our guide - but he didn't mean analytical logic," said Miller. "He wanted the people around him to stop following the voices of authority and peer pressure, so he offered an alternative."

Miller, who has 'translated' a number of Emerson's essays for modern readers in her book "Natural Abundance" and written a short biography of his life, "The Power of the Self," will share some of the insights she has gained in her study and apply them to the situation America is in today.

The UU Fellowship is located at 87738 Hwy 101 at Heceta Beach Road and is wheelchair accessible.
