Florence resident Brian Lee Yoakum, 37, was arrested by Florence Police in May for suspicion of collecting child pornography and encouraging child sexual abuse.

An investigation was launched in January following several tips from people familiar with Yoakum who expressed suspicions that Yoakum had obtained and collected child pornography on his computer, according to Lane County Prosecutor Bob Lane.

Brian Lee Yoakum

Yoakum had received probation in 2010 on a similar charge after child pornography was found on a laptop that Yoakum had brought in for repairs. He received two years of probation after pleading guilty and was required to register as a sexual offender as well as attend treatment.

Public defender Robert Kaiser, who represented Yoakum on the most recent charges, said that the 37-year-old had attended some of the required treatment program sessions but had stopped going due to the hardship of traveling between Florence and Eugene.

Kaiser also suggested that a

State, county police respond to dual calls in Mapleton

Lane County Sheriff's Office, Oregon State Police and other emergency agencies responded to two calls in Mapleton on Thursday, Aug. 10, once to arrest a person on a warrant and the other in response to a suicide by gun on Highway 36.

Investigations are ongoing at this point.
