

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

WELLS—Haley Rose Wells, 16, of Mapleton, passed away Aug. 12, 2017, from an ATV accident.

Haley Wells

Haley was born in Florence Ore., to Wes Wells and Sherry Fleming. Haley also gave Vanessa West the honor of helping parent her.

She will be missed greatly by her siblings: Dominic Wells, Alyssa West and Tyler Percell; her best friend Skie Bowman; grandparents Joyce and Steve Tennison, Deb Fleming and Don Fleming; several aunts and uncles, cousins, many friends and the whole Mapleton community.

Haley was preceded in death by her great-grandparents, Albert and Mary Wells, and Margret Fleming; and her uncle, Ward Wells.

She was born a city girl, but it didn't take long for her to become a country girl. She loved fishing, big trucks, camping and riding dirt bikes. Haley was full of energy and was quite the comedian; the room was never quiet when she was there.

She played all sports that Mapleton had to offer. She was a hard worker; she started working at Driftwood Shores as a housekeeper at the age of 14.

A few months ago, she decided to branch out in her working career and started working at BJ's Ice Cream Parlor.

Haley's family would like to thank the whole community for all its support. They would also like to thank all the volunteers and community members who tried their hardest to help save our daughter and provided support to our other children until we could reach them — Thank You!

Although family and friends are sad to see her go so soon, we know she was loved by many. And though we don't know why she died so soon, we know she's at peace with Weston Bowman, Abby Boydston and Brandon Kimble.

She may be gone, but she, too, will never be forgotten.

A celebration of Haley's life is being held at Mapleton High School at 1 p.m. today, Aug. 16.

Haley's family welcomes all friends, family and the community to attend.

HALE—Nancy Johnson Hale, 74, of Florence, passed away Aug. 3, 2017.

Nancy was born Dec. 31, 1942, in Norfolk, Va., to Nancy and Horace Johnson (both deceased).

Nancy was preceded in death by her husband, Jim (March, 8, 1984). Nancy studied education at the University of Akron and University of Delaware, making her career as an elementary teacher in places like Chillicothe, Ill., and Durham, NC.

She went on to receive her master's degree in library science from North Carolina Central University. After retirement, she joined her kids out west, sparking more of her wanderlust.

Nancy lived life to the fullest and met many dear friends along her journey. Nancy's love for animals was only matched by her love of travel. In recent years, adventures in her motor home took her and her partner all over the west, scoping out the next best ATV spots, gardening, volunteering and exploring beautiful places.

Nancy was a free spirit and will be missed by the many friends she made along the way.

Nancy is survived by her partner, Coit; son James Edward Hale II (Karen) of Phoenix, Ariz.; daughter Jennifer Hale (Chad Crabtree) of Portland, Maine; and brother James Johnson (Debra) of Westerville, Ohio.

Memorial services will be held throughout the year at later dates.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to your local humane society in honor of Nancy's love of animals.

"Bloom where you are planted." — Nancy Hale.

Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

NORTON—Barbara Lea

Norton, 66, of Swisshome, died July 23, 2017, of multiple complications resulting from diabetes.

Barbara was born on March 21, 1951, to Maurice (Moose) and Freda Chappelle of Reedsport.

She was preceded in death by her parents and daughter, Carrie.

She is survived by her husband, James (Jim) and son, Adam, both of Swisshome; and her sister and brother-in-law, Debbie and Rick Reavis of Bandon.

Barbara delivered the Register Guard in the Florence area for some years. She also was employed for seven years for Temporary Services at the Florence Landfill and for Lane County Solid Waste when they took over the landfill.

She worked in the rural areas of Low Pass and Swisshome as a fee collector and a recycler, and also was the fee collector at the Florence facility for approximately 25 years.

A celebration of life memorial will take place at the Swisshome Church on Sunday, Aug. 20, at 2 p.m.

SHOUN—Robert L. Shoun, 74, of Florence, passed away Aug. 11, 2017.

A funeral service will be held Thursday, Aug. 17, at noon, at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Arrangements were made through Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home.
