Mo's to donate school supplies this semester

Mo's Restaurants have announced that several of its coastal locations and the Portland location will be participating in the donation of school supplies to local elementary schools. The proceeds of "Motivation for Kids Table" inside each store have collected the funds for this endeavor. During the months of July and August, approximately $7,500 was raised. The restaurant's plan to distribute the supplies to the elementary schools in the corresponding locations on Friday, Sept. 1. If you would like more information about this donation, contact Bob Scull at 503-791-4286 or by email at bobscull@moschowder.com.

LADY ELKS SEND 'TASTE OF HOME'

The Ladies of the Florence Elks "Touch of Home Committee" recently sent 12 boxes of cookies and requested items to Nick and his military unit, who are deployed in the Middle East. The boxes arrived within a week and the service men and women appreciated their special "touch of home." The servicemen requested headlamps and tried them on while enjoying the cookies. The Ladies of Elks sent the items as a thank you for their service to our country.

Pianist sought for LRP's 'Annie'

Last Resort Players Theater Company is in search of a piano and keyboard player for the upcoming musical production of "Annie." The pianist will be asked to accompany two rehearsals a week during September and October. The pianist will also be playing with the orchestra on Nov. 3, 4, 5, 10, 11 and 12. The skill level required for the work is intermediate to advanced and a stipend will be offered to the pianist for their time. Inquiries and questions should be directed to the assistant director, Beth Johnston, at 541-999-0159.

Yachats Ladies hold Labor Day social

The heaven that is home made pie will be celebrated for the last time of the summer at the Yachats Ladies Club Annual Labor Day Weekend Pie and Ice Cream Social on Saturday, Sept. 2, at 11 a.m. The Yachats Ladies Club pie bakers will have a huge array of fruit and cream pies featured at this event. The selection includes varieties of apple, cherry, rhubarb, strawberry rhubarb, assorted berry, assorted cream pies, lemon meringue, sour cream cherry, chocolate truffle, pumpkin, key lime and some sugar free and gluten free options. There will only be a few of the specialty pies and folks should arrive early for best selection. Come early because the pies often sell out early. Large brownies will also be offered. Slices are a sixth of a pie and are $4 each. Brownies are $3. Add ice cream for $1 more. Coffee and tea will be served as well. You can take some home for later with the available to go boxes. This is a great time to meet some of the visitors to our community as well as connect with friends and neighbors who turn out for this annual event that has been happening for more than 12 years. The social will be at the Yachats Ladies Clubhouse, 286 W Third St., at the corner of Pontiac Street, in Yachats. The pie will be served from 11 a.m. until the pie is gone. The Yachats Ladies Club is an active service club for women of the South County who enjoy creating fun events that raise funds for community needs and groups.

Beverly Trute of the Yachats Ladies Club enjoys some pie and ice cream at the club's annual social.
