

THE RECORD

OBITUARIES

GALLETON—Julie Ann Galleton, of Florence, went Home to be with Jesus on Saturday, Aug. 19, 2017.

Julie Galleton

Julie was a fun, kind and loving woman who was dedicated to her husband, daughter and grandchildren, but above all else her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Julie was full of love and compassion and was always a friend to those in need. She loved to laugh and was good at bringing laughter with her. She loved to spend time with the elderly and enjoyed the time she spent with her friends at Shorewood.

She also served as a Hospice volunteer for a time.

In her spare time she loved to attend church and A.A. functions, to go camping, hiking, riding her Harley, playing games, visiting new and favorite places, dancing and tending her flower garden.

Julie especially loved to spend time with her family.

She added so much to the lives that surrounded her, and she will be greatly missed here on earth, but we know that she is alive and well with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and we look forward to joining her again one day in Glory.

Julie is survived by her husband, Don Galleton; her daughter, Amanda Wise, and her husband Jesse; and five grandchildren: Isaiah, Seriah, Micaiah, Ezra and Evan. She is also survived by her three sisters: Cody, Stella and Yvette, along with their husbands and children.

There will be a Celebration of Life held Saturday, Sept. 9, at 1 p.m., at First Baptist Church, 1935 25th St., in Florence.

All are welcome. Burns's Riverside Chapel Florence Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements

70th ANNIVERSARY

Doris and Bobby Garrett

Bobby and Doris Garrett of Westlake marked their 70th wedding anniversary with an open house celebration at the First Baptist Church in Florence on Saturday, Aug. 19.

The event was hosted by their daughter and son-in-law, Nancy and Mark Andrew of La Center, Wash., and close friend Marsha Libby of Veneta.

Their son, Bobby Jr., was a greeter to many friends and relatives. Foster daughter Irene, along with grandchildren Kristy, Coy and wife Kathleen, and Cody, along with great-grandchildren Ethan and Quinn, were in attendance.

Chuck Myrick, long-time friend of Florence, presented Bob and Doris with a poem he wrote called "When Love Abounds." Cy Hopper of Florence shared Bob and Doris' history and entertained the attendees with personal thoughts and stories of the couple, followed by a cutting-of-the-cake ceremony.

Bruce Sloan, Region 4 Team Leader Church Health Catalyst of the Northwest Southern Baptist Convention, presented Bob and Doris with a Certificate of Appreciation for 70 years of marriage and 65 years of faithful service.

Their daughter Nancy, along with Susie Hyatt of North Bend and Gloria Brown of Myrtle Point, sang two of the couple's favorite hymns while accompanied by grandson Coy on the guitar. Marsha Libby presented the couple with a beautiful handmade quilt displaying the names of the couple's family members.

Charlotta Hendrickson gifted Bob and Doris with a hand sewn album of cherished memories submitted by friends and family.

Bobby Garrett and Doris Dunning were married Aug. 24, 1947, at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg, Oregon.

They have lived in various places, including Roseburg, Anchorage, Sitkum, Portland and Westlake for the last 41 years.

Before retiring, Bob was a carpenter for 40 years and a meat cutter. He served in the U.S. Marine Division, 5th Regiment, 2nd Battalion in the Okinawa Campaign Pacific Theater and North China Campaign.

Doris retired from Coast to Coast Hardware in Florence in 2001 and, prior to her move to Westlake in 1976, she worked as a polisher and finisher for Dahlin's Dental Lab in Portland.

The Garretts are parents of Nancy Andrew of La Center, Wash., and Bobby Jack Garrett Jr. of Florence. Their son, Steve, died in 1995. They have two foster children, Irene Lickiss and Korey Farrow; three grandchildren: Kristy Andrew of Cordova, Alaska, Coy Andrew from Ariel, Wash., and Cody Garrett of Florence; four foster grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, Ethan Parker and Quinn Andrew.
