'Viking Church' to hold service this weekend

Siuslaw High School alumni and the community are invited to morning worship on Sunday, Sept. 10, the day after the Siuslaw Alumni Association All-Class Reunion.

Retired minister Gary Winkleman, Class of 1966, will lead the 8 a.m. service at the old Hans Peterson Memorial Field (the original football field on Quince Street in Old Town).

Enjoy music by Siuslaw grads Tom and Deb Trammel.

Bring chairs to sit in the covered grandstands, as the bleachers have been removed.

Volunteers recently spent several hours cleaning up the field.

Gate opens by 7:30 a.m. and parking will be on the field.

Call SAA president Mike Bones for more information at 541-997-3082.

B&G CLUB SETS 'FOUNDATION'

On Thursday, Aug. 31, Boys and Girls Club of Western Lane County board members and volunteers helped Evergreen Concrete pour the foundation for the Nan Osborn High School Teen Center, located at the Boys and Girls Club at 1501 Airport Road.

The 2,800 square-foot building will double the size of the existing facility and house club high school programs and administrative offices. The current Teen Center facility will be used exclusively for middle school club members.

Boys and Girls Club Executive Director Jack Davis said, "Club membership keeps growing, and on some days last year our current Teen Center was busting at the seams with more than 50 kids. We will now be able to double our capacity and better target our nationally proven programs, like Smart Girls, Passport to Manhood and Money Matters to middle and high school club members." The Nan Osborn building is scheduled to open before the first of the year.

PVH Celebrates 2,000th Healing Blanket

Peace Harbor Volunteers Healing Blanket program is proud to celebrate and announce the completion of the 2,000th Healing Blanket.

Members of the Tuesday Sewing Group knit, crochet and quilt these blankets.

The hospital chaplains from Spiritual Care give patients a blanket, with the majority going to those who are seriously ill or experiencing a crisis. Attached to each blanket is a card expressing the Peace Health mission and a healing prayer.

"We tell the patients that the blankets are like a hug they can take home with them," said staff chaplain Joani Schmidt. "Some of our patients respond to the blankets when they don't respond to anything else. They are a special touch of beauty and care for our most physically and emotionally critical patients."

Program operates as part of the Tuesday Sewing Group.

The hospital volunteers meet on Tuesday mornings in the Spruce Point recreation room from 9 to 11:30a.m. Yarn and supplies are furnished, as well as knitting and crocheting lessons. Not only does the group meet weekly, but also the members work on their projects at home.

Yarn donations are always welcome and accepted.

If interested in joining this group call chair Denise Dimeglio at 541-361-9447 or Healing Blanket Coordinator Cheryl Paletz at 541-991-9445.

The volunteers also make baby blankets for hospital newborns, and various items for the hospital gift shop.

Many volunteer opportunities exist, including the hospital gift shop, patient advocacy, hospital lobby, same day surgery and more.

If interested, please call President Nancy Johnson at 541-997-8412 ext 2218.

Members of the Tuesday Sewing Group show off the 2,000th Healing Blanket for the Peace Health Healing Blanket program.

Additionally, Hospice, Home Health, No One Dies Alone and Palliative Care patients receive these blankets. Red, white, and blue blankets are made for patients who are veterans. The Healing Blanket
