

Storytime coming to Siuslaw Pioneer Museum

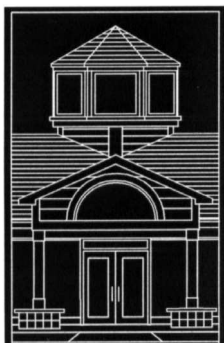

The public is invited to hear the stories of Tiernan, told by local resident Carl Mason, on Friday, Sept. 29, at 7 p.m.

Tiernan, which is located five miles west of Mapleton, is named after R. Tiernan of San Francisco, who was leasing a local sawmill in the area. Mason grew up in Tiernan during the 20s and 30s, attended school in Mapleton and has many stories to tell of those early days. Find out more about the history of this little-known area in this free event, located at the Siuslaw Pioneer Museum, 278 Maple St.

Book Review "My Mother's Kitchen"

By Peter Gethers

"My Mother's Kitchen: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner, and the Meaning of Life," by Peter Gethers, is a funny, moving memoir about a son's discovery that his mother has a genius for understanding the intimate connections between cooking, people and love.

Gethers wants to give his aging mother a very personal and perhaps final gift: a spectacular feast featuring all her favorite dishes.

The problem is, although he was raised to love food and wine, he doesn't really know how to cook. So he embarks upon an often hilarious and always touching culinary journey, that will ultimately allow him to bring his mother's friends and loved ones to the table one last time.

The daughter of a restaurateur — the restaurant was New York's legendary "Ratner's" — Judy Gethers discovered a passion for cooking in her fifties. In time, she became a mentor and friend to several of the most famous chefs in America, including Wolfgang Puck, Nancy Silverton and Jonathan Waxman; she also wrote many cookbooks and taught cooking alongside Julia Child.

In her 80s, she was robbed of her ability to cook by a debilitating stroke. But illness has brought her closer than ever to her son; Peter regularly visits her so they can share meals and he can ask questions about her colorful past while learning her kitchen secrets.

Gradually his ambition becomes manifest: he decides to learn how to cook his mother the meal of her dreams and thereby tell the story of her life to all those who have loved her.

With his trademark wit and knowing eye, Gethers has written an unforgettable memoir about how food and family can do much more than feed us — they can nourish our souls.

er skills; and online language learning with Mango.

You'll even get a prize just for coming... not to mention some beer, wine and pizza!

John Daniel to Keynote Florence Festival of Books

Oregon author John Daniel, who has just this year published the novel "Gifted," will be the keynote speaker at this year's Florence Festival of Books on Friday, Sept. 29, at 7 p.m. at the Florence Events Center.

Daniel has received the Oregon Book Award for two prior books, "The Far Corner: Northwestern Views on Land, Life," and "Literature and Looking After: A Son's Memoir." "Gifted" tells the story of a young man with a spiritual imagination and a rare affinity for wild creatures who comes of age under harsh circumstances, negotiating the wildness of his home country, his human relationships and the emerging complexities of his own being.

While Daniel will be signing books after the keynote address, the library also has copies of all of his books available to check out.
