Cake for Jimmy Carter

Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States and winner of the Nobel Peace prize in 2002, celebrated his 93rd Birthday on Oct. 1. The former President has maintained a high profile since losing his re-election campaign against Ronald Reagan in 1980. Carter is also a former governor of Georgia and the founder of the Carter Center, a nonprofit aid agency that was founded in 1982 and operates world wide in association with Emory University. The organization has assisted in resolving conflicts and assisting with refugee emergencies across the globe for decades. The work done at the Carter Center has benefited hundreds of thousands of individuals over the years through vaccination and food distribution, as well as his continued involvement with Habitat for Humanity projects around the world. For the last 10 years, admirers of Carter have held birthday parties across the country to celebrate the man, his wife Rosalynn and the work of the Carter Center. In Florence, Patricia Jamison (above) of the local Habitat for Humanity program prepares to cut a cake for Carter in appreciation. Giant birthday cards signed by dozens of community members were also sent to the past President on behalf of the Florence Habitat for Humanity program.

PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center caregivers Dr. Stephen Kerner, DO and hospice medical director, and Amanda Bryan, CNA and hospice aide, received the Hospice Dream Team Physician of the Year award from the Oregon Hospice and Palliative Care Association (OHPCA). The award recognizes caregivers who exemplify the best in quality hospice care. Dr. Kerner and Bryan were honored at the annual Professional Practice Exchange Conference in Redmond, Ore., Sept. 24-26. Dr. Kerner was recognized for his work in establishing a palliative care

"His passion is motivating to our entire hospice team, and he encourages us to devote our hearts to providing service excellence for our patients," said Kathy Murphy, manager of home care services. "He always seems to go above and beyond the call of duty for his team and for his patients. His commitment to serving our patients is an example to others of what our PeaceHealth mission and values mean." Bryan was awarded for her attitude, kindness, attention to detail and support of the team. "Amanda's compassion for her patients shows in how she honors those who are in the most vulnerable time of their lives," Murphy said. "She is
