SHIBA warns of scam Medicare phone calls

Oregon's Senior Health Insurance Benefits Assistance program (SHIBA) is warning individuals to be wary of "cold calls" being made in their name. SHIBA staff members and volunteers help consumers understand and enroll in Medicare, but they never make unsolicited phone calls. Anyone who did not contact SHIBA first should refuse to share any personal information and hang up on any unexpected caller claiming to be from SHIBA. Rejecting this type of "cold calls" is a smart habit to avoid scams. Oregon SHIBA has received one report of a similar suspicious call being made here. "We help people over the phone all the time," said Lisa Emerson, Oregon SHIBA program manager, "but only when they call us, or when we're returning their call." SHIBA has a statewide network of trained volunteers who educate and advocate for people of all ages who have or want to enroll in Medicare. These volunteers, plus five state employees, help consumers understand their rights and Medicare insurance choices. To find a SHIBA counselor in your area, contact SHIBA at 1-800-722-4134.

Heceta Lighthouse to host Victorian Christmas

The community is invited to attend the Heceta Head Lightstation's 22nd annual Victorian Christmas Open House.

Doors will be open to the public from 4 to 7 p.m. on Dec. 9, 10, 16 and 17.

Visitors are sure to enjoy the beautifully decorated Keeper's House. Each evening local musicians will perform holiday favorites, while local sponsors provide warm drinks and cookies.

In addition, Santa Claus will also be visiting each evening.

A free shuttle service from the Heceta Head Lighthouse State Scenic Viewpoint parking lot will be available.

There is a $5 day use fee required for parking. Admission to Keepers House is free.

The Heceta Lighthouse Gift Shop will be open for those last minute gifts, and the State Park will have the lighthouse open as well, so bring a flashlight and rain jacket, just in case.

Remembrance during Hospice, Palliative Care Month

November is National Hospice and Palliative Care month.

PeaceHealth Peace Harbor Medical Center Hospice — your community hospice team — serves an area of 25 square miles surrounding the city of Florence, including Westlake, Mapleton, Deadwood and Swisshome.

Hundreds of families in our community have benefited this year from the services our non-profit hospice provides.

"It is an honor to be invited into the homes of our community neighbors and to help them through what is a very difficult time as they face the challenges of life threatening illnesses," said Nancy Allen, one of the home health aides.

Peace Harbor Hospice provides care to individuals who have a prognosis of six months or less by focusing on the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the families and their loved ones.

Hospice offers nurses, therapists, social workers, aides, volunteers and chaplain services, all under the direction of the hospice and palliative care board-certified physician.

Peace Harbor Hospice is sponsoring its 22nd annual Light Up A Life fundraiser ceremony on Sunday, Dec. 9, from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Florence Events Center. The ceremony presents a wonderful opportunity to honor and cherish the memories of your loved ones.

Stars can be purchased to recognize a loved one who has died or to recognize someone special in your life.

The stars, each with the loved one's name attached, are hung on a holiday tree; Stars of David are placed on a Menorah table. Recognition is also given during the "reading of the names" segment of the ceremony.

Peace Harbor Hospice is a non-profit 501(c) organization; all contributions are tax deductible. One hundred percent of the donations to Light Up A Life benefit Peace Harbor Hospice and the Florence-area patients and families we serve.

Donations can be mailed to Peace Harbor Hospice, 400 Ninth St., Florence, or can be dropped off at the office at 2230 Kingwood St.

To learn more or contribute, call 541-997-3418. Office hours are Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., with an hourlong break at noon.

The hospice team offers its deep gratitude to the community for its continued support of this important service.

Salvation Army to host supporters supper tomorrow

The Salvation Army-Western Lane County is having a Supporters Supper on Thursday, Nov. 9, at the ICM Restaurant in Old Town Florence.

All Salvation Army supporters and anyone interested in volunteering this Christmas season will enjoy a choice of four choices at a price of $12 each.

Volunteer Red Kettle Coordinator Sam Spayd will be encouraging individuals, churches and civic organizations to plan on participating in this year's 2017 Red Kettle Campaign that begins the day after Thanksgiving and ends on Christmas Eve.

Representatives of The Salvation Army, including officers and staff, have been invited to come share how money raised locally has been used to benefit Western Lane County.

Spayd and Salvation Army representatives are available to address local churches and civic groups.

Anyone interested in volunteering is encouraged to attend the ICM Restaurant dinner, beginning at 6 p.m.

RSVP by calling 1-800-481-

3280 or email plannedgift@usw.salvationarmy.org with your name(s) and phone numbers.

Donations for this year's Kettle Campaign can be sent to:

The Salvation Army-Western Lane County, P.O. Box 1041, Florence, Ore. 97439.

Caregiving Support Group to meet Nov 14

The Florence Caregiving Support Group is open to anyone who gives or receives care.

The group meets to allow area residents to connect and discuss caregiving issues, find care providers or consumers, and work toward improving caregiving at the local and state level. At the next meeting,

Tuesday, Nov. 14, the group will view the documentary "Care," which shows the lives of caregivers from around the country. Meetings start at 5:30 p.m. in the meeting room at The Shorewood, 1451 Spruce St.

For more information, call Steve Benson at 541-429-2600.
