

PFLAG to host meeting, SHS student exhibits at FRAA

'Sock Hop' Nov. 14

Join PFLAG-Florence for fun, food, dancing and some golden oldies music at its next meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 14, starting at 6:30 p.m.

The meeting will be held at Lane Community College-Florence Center in Room 158.

Those wanting to wear a poodle skirt or slicked back hair are encouraged to do so — but it's not required.

While there, attendees can check out the PFLAG resource library. Refreshments will be served, and the event is free and open to the public.

PFLAG is the country's largest organization for parents, families, friends, and straight allies united with people who are lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT).

PFLAG-Florence is the local affiliate of a national organization with more than 350 chapters and 200,000 members and supporters across the United States.

Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) is pleased to introduce its featured Youth Artist, Elissa Hurley. Hurley's work will be exhibited during the month of November at FRAA's Art Center and Gallery. The public will be able to meet her during the Second Saturday Gallery Tour on Saturday, Nov. 11, from 3 to 5 p.m.

One of FRAA's goals is to encourage youth artists in the community.

Hurley, a sophomore at Siuslaw High School, said, "Most of my drawings and other art pieces are me experimenting and or expressing my emotions/feelings. Drawing naturally makes me feel calm and happy with everything."

She enjoys using bright colors and things that "pop," but she still gets in the mood for dark things, as well. Mediums she uses include pencils, pens, watercolor, acrylic, oil, scratch-board and multimedia.

Hurley was inspired by her grandma, Margaret Hurley, a former painter. She also became more involved with art as a student in Kim Pickell's Creative Art classes, and when she discovered the local BeauxArts Fine Art Materials.

Hurley's other activities include volleyball, bowling, and softball.

As Hurley states, "Art takes me to a new world to explore. A peaceful place to invent."

FRAA is located at 120 Maple St. in Historic Old Town Florence.

Unitarians discuss Words of the Prophets

All are welcome to join the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship on Sunday, Nov. 12, from 10 to 11 a.m. Rev. Dr. Ruth Miller will lead the service titled, "Words of the Prophets."

For "the people of the Book," the "Abrahamic" traditions of Judaism, Islam and Christianity, prophets are very important.

"For certain Christian sects, people still experience this 'gift of the Spirit' and share the words they receive," Miller said. "Many people in America today are organizing their lives around biblical prophecies and are making political, as well as personal decisions based on them.

"We will explore what prophets we, as Unitarian Universalists, follow, what prophecies we pay attention to and what prophecies we need to be paying more attention to in today's changing world."

In addition, on Saturday, Nov. 11 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., Miller, an internationally known futurist, will be doing a presentation and dialogue on "What's the World Coming To?"

"Rapid changes in technology and consciousness are driving our society through a shift unlike anything humanity has seen in thousands of years," Miller said. "What does this mean for our children and their children?"

A $10 donation is requested and lunch is provided for this event.

The fellowship is located at 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road and is wheelchair accessible.

Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each service.

Spirituali-Tea to look at subjects of kindness, sympathy

On Monday, Nov. 13, at 6:30 p.m. all are invited to join a group from diverse spiritual paths looking to share their spiritual path and to understand and appreciate the paths of others.

The topic will be the duty of kindness and sympathy towards strangers.

The Baha'i Writings say; "When a man turns his face to God, he finds sunshine everywhere. All men are his brothers. Let not conventionality cause you to seem cold and unsympathetic when you meet strange people from other countries ..."

The gathering will meet at the Heintz home, 875 Seventh St.

People are encouraged to bring their thoughts on the subject for open discussion.

The gathering will end at 8 p.m. with prayers for the requests left in the Prayer Pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse and those shared by the group.

For more information, call Suzanne Mann-Heintz at 541 590-0779.
