18th annual 'Pounding' to raise funds for Food Share

The 18th annual "Pounding" to benefit Florence Food Share will be held at Grocery Outlet on Saturday, Nov. 18, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Hosted by local businesswoman Cindy Wobbe, this annual food drive aims to fill the food bank's pantries with much needed canned, boxed and frozen food items in time for the holiday season.

Starting in 2000 and always held the Saturday before Thanksgiving, Wobbe matched the public's donations pound for pound, resulting in more than 80,000 pounds of donations over a 15-year span, until she sold her restaurant.

In 2015, an anonymous donor stepped in to continue the sponsorship, matching pounds with dollars.

"I've never asked who it is," Wobbe said. "I'm just deeply grateful that someone stepped in to help. Over 600 families in our community rely on Food Share to keep from going hungry each month and this food drive has been a godsend year after year."

Cindy Wobbe (right) helps volunteers weigh food from Grocery Outlet to benefit Florence Food Share for the 18th annual Pounding on Saturday, Nov. 18.

This is the third Pounding this same anonymous donor has offered to match the total poundage with funds.

An additional sponsor, Top Hydraulics, has just announced that it will also match the total number of pounds donated.

"I'm thrilled for Food Share!" Wobbe said. "Food Share is facing a crisis right now. Donations of food and money are at a critical low, and the need for services continues to rise. This means that for every pound we receive at the Pounding, Food Share will receive a match of $2. What a wonderful and timely gift."

Wobbe will be joined by local radio personality Wayne Sharpe of KCST Radio, who has conducted a live radio remote broadcast on location every year since the beginning.

Grocery Outlet owner/operator Woody Woodbury will mark specials throughout the store of items most desperately needed at the food bank and plans to have extra staff available during the event to help with pushing grocery carts, loading boxes of canned foods and ringing in customers at the checkstands.

Last year's event raised a record 11,111 pounds of food, and both Wobbe and Woodbury expect an even larger turnout due to two recent feature stories in the Siuslaw News highlighting Food Share's immediate crises.

Grocery Outlet is located at 2066 Highway 101.

Serving our community for over 15 years.

Soroptimist Christmas Basket and Toy Drive Underway

Soroptimist International of Florence has kicked off its annual Christmas Basket collection season in style.

The Florence Rhody Cruisers Car Club, with the help of Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue firefighters, organized a toy donation drive at A&W on Nov. 2. Santa Claus, flashing fire engines and free root beer floats all helped fill a van with toys.

If you missed the fun, there is still plenty of time to donate a new, unwrapped toy for an infant to 12-year-old child for Christmas.

The Soroptimists have set up collection points at the following business locations: Oregon Pacific Bank, First Community Credit Union, Banner Bank, US Bank, WA Federal Savings, Lane Community College Florence Center, AIC Insurance, Coastal Fitness, Hoberg Muffler, On Your Feet, Rite Aid, St. Mary's Catholic Church, The Shipping Shack, Three Rivers Casino Resort, Stone Haven

Santa Claus gathers gifts Nov. 2 with Florence Soroptimist President Frankie Jorgenson and Siuslaw Valley firefighters.

Acupuncture, Fred Meyer, West Coast Auto Body, Shervin's Tire, Florence Eye Clinic, State Farm Insurance and Abel Insurance.

Monetary donations are also needed to help with food for the Christmas Baskets. These can be mailed to: Soroptimist International of Florence, P.O. Box 1209, Florence, OR 97439.

The Food Baskets and Toys will be distributed on Dec. 16 at Siuslaw Middle School and Florence Church of the Nazarene.

This is truly a community effort and anyone willing to help with set up and distribution is urged to contact Soroptimist members Michelle Fraley, 541-997-3434, or Carol Bennett, 541-991-3455, to volunteer or for more information.
