Hamlet: Globe to Globe
 by Dominic Dromgoole

From Dominic Dromgoole, the artistic director of Shakespeare's Globe Theatre in London, comes an account of the theater's extraordinary two-year tour bringing "Hamlet" to every country on earth.

Two years, 190,000 miles, 197 countries and one play.

For the 450th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth, the Globe Theatre in London undertook an unparalleled journey to share "Hamlet" with the entire world.

The tour was the brainchild of Dominic Dromgoole, artistic director of the Globe.

In "Hamlet Globe to Globe," Dromgoole takes readers along with him on this wildly ambitious expedition. From performing in sweltering deserts, capital and remote cities, heaving marketplaces and on Pacific islands, and despite food poisoning in Mexico, the threat of ambush in Somaliland, an Ebola epidemic in West Africa and political upheaval in Ukraine, the Globe's players tirelessly pushed on.

They carried their own props, instruments and costumes throughout the journey, and could construct an entire set in less than two hours.

Dromgoole introduces this impressive cast of sturdy souls, recounting the highs and lows of their tour, paying witness to Shakespeare's power to transcend borders and bring the world closer to together.

Dromgoole also shows us the world through the prism of Shakespeare and why, in its mystery, it resonates so widely — how a 16th century play can touch the lives of men and women in Sudan, citizens of Beijing and Syrian refugees alike.

Through the lens of this epic, theatrical journey, Dromgoole gleans new insight into Shakespeare's masterpiece, exploring the play's history, its meaning and its pleasures, and offering a dramatic and heartfelt testament to Shakespeare's enduring presence on the modern stage.

Hang-It All Art Display
 Don't miss this month's "Hang It All" art display, featuring a wide variety of artistic talent from western Lane County.

Each time you visit the library be sure to place your vote for your favorite work of art for the People's Choice Award.

Can't decide which to vote for? Vote for a different work on each visit.

David Helfand and Justin Lader in Concert
 The library is pleased to present musicians David Helfand and Justin Lader on Saturday, Dec. 2nd, at 2 p.m., for an afternoon of vibrant, transcendental original music inspired by magical journeys and featuring music from their latest album, "Through the Portal."

Helfand and Lader, of Eugene, together have remarkable skills with the Celtic harp, octave mandolin, violin, viola, guitar, and keyboards.

This concert is free and open to the public.

Gingerbread Houses
 Don't miss your opportunity to decorate a gingerbread house on Saturday, Dec. 9, from 10 a.m. to noon in the library's Bromley Room.

A very popular program, families are invited to bring kids of all ages for this gingerbread house decorating extravaganza. Supplies will be provided.

Children under the age of 8 must be accompanied by an adult.

Holiday Closure
 In celebration of Thanksgiving, the library will be closed Thursday, Nov. 23, and Friday, Nov. 24.

Regular hours, both in Florence and Mapleton, resume on Saturday, Nov. 25.

The library wishes you all a wonderful and safe holiday.

Soroptimists to distribute food baskets and toys

Soroptimist International of Florence has kicked off its annual Christmas Basket collection season to bring food baskets and toys to the community.
