EMPTY BOWLS

Buy an empty, handmade bowl created by local artists and, in the process, help someone who may otherwise go hungry for the holidays.

That's been the idea behind the annual Empty Bowls event for the past 22 years. This year's event will offer more than 500 handmade ceramic, glass and wooden bowls to the public, created by many local artists, with the purchase price of $5 and up.

One of a kind wooden artwork (sushi boards, coasters, trivets and more) will be available from local artist Rhonda Butler. In addition, Food Share will have a silent auction table full of wonderful art and items of all kinds.

The 22nd Annual Empty Bowls fundraiser opens Friday, December 1st from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. continuing December 2nd, Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and concluding on December 3rd, Sunday from 12:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Every year sponsors, local restaurants, Lane Community College artists, Siuslaw High School artists and numerous volunteers join together to make this community event a success.

All proceeds from this fundraiser make it possible for the Florence Food Share to provide services to those in need in the area.

Admission is free to the event and the public is encouraged to attend.

Jazz King's Old Fashioned Christmas

Tuesday, December 13 at 7:30 p.m.

The Emerald City Jazz Kings and Jesse Cloninger bring an old fashioned Christmas for their 2017-18 season to the FEC on Wednesday, December 13th at 7:30 p.m.

The Jazz Kings will bring you a heartwarming Christmas show with Shirley Andress returning as artistic director. With songs like "I'll be home for Christmas," "Silver Bells," "Winter Wonderland," and "Have yourself a Merry Little Christmas," audiences may pause and reflect on the passage of time and the warm memories of Christmas past.

Tickets are available now through the Florence Events Center box office.
