

It takes a village...

Thank you, Florence, for being ours.

You know who you are. You are just plain awesome. You are a donor, a sponsor, a grant-maker. You bought tickets to a show. You are a family member. You are a creative force. You volunteered. You offered. You said "YES!" You helped build the future for local children. You are #crowfamily.

To every person who helped make C.R.O.W. fly this year.....we would like to say "Thank You." Gratitude is our attitude. And we're grateful for YOU.

Happy Holidays from all of us at C.R.O.W.
