Police offer tips to prevent theft during holidays

The Florence Police Department has taken 11 reports of stolen vehicles within the city limits of Florence from late August to today.

In seven of those incidents, the keys were left inside the vehicles, making the vehicle an easy opportunity for theft.

Florence police would like to remind area citizens to protect themselves and their property by not leaving the keys to your car inside the vehicle, never leave a running vehicle unattended and to always lock your vehicle doors.

“With the holiday season upon us it is also important to not leave packages or other items of value in your car that can be seen from outside your car, and again always lock your doors,” said Commander John Pitcher. “A lot of crimes that are committed are ‘crimes of opportunity,’ where if we take away the opportunity or make ourselves a harder target the thief will likely move on.”

Correction

In the front-page article, “The Economics of Volunteerism” (Dec. 13), the grant award for the rain water collection and drip irrigation came from The Cow Creek Umpqua Indian Foundation in Canyonville not the local Three Rivers Foundation.

Also, the Friends of Florence Van Fans is a separate fundraiser group for the Friends of Florence cancer bus service.

Siuslaw News regrets the errors.

The Holidays are upon us with festive lights, brightly lit trees, parties, gift giving, christmas dinners and where all is merry and bright. But for some it is not all merry and bright. There are many people that do not have adequate shelter, food, or warm clothes. If you have a chance to give money, supplies or volunteer your time, there are many organizations that will help those in need. To name a few, there's SOS, Food Share, the Soroptomist Christmas Baskets and Toys, Coats for kids, Helping Hands Coalition, and you can even give or ring the bell for the Salvation Army. I'm sure I missed organizations who help, but whatever way you choose to give, let's put a little cheer in someone else's life.
