Royal New Year's Eve

Saturday at 8 p.m. on HALL

Caitlyn (Jessy Schram, "Once Upon a Time"), an aspiring fashion designer, gets a fairy-tale break when Prince Jeffrey (Sam Page, "House of Cards") and Lady Isabelle (Hayley Sales, "Cedar Cove"), the woman he is expected to marry, come to town and Isabelle hires Caitlyn to design her gown for a New Year's ball. The prince plans to pop the question at the gala, but he and Caitlyn feel some sparks in this 2017 romance. Cheryl Ladd also stars.

Fox's New Year's Eve With Steve Harvey: Live From Times Square

Sunday at 8 p.m. on KLSR

The man with 100 television jobs these days (or so it seems), Harvey has been no stranger to Fox lately, having hosted the Miss Universe Pageant and "Showtime at the Apollo" specials. Now, he becomes Mr. New Year's Eve for the network in New York's Times Square, welcoming music acts and celebrity guests to help get 2018 off to a festive start. Maria Menounos serves as co-host, with Celine Dion, Neil Diamond, Backstreet Boys, Flo Rida and Macklemore featuring Skylar Grey among the scheduled performers.

129th Rose Parade
Monday at 8 a.m., 10 a.m. on HALL
An actor very familiar to television and movie viewers presides as Grand Marshal of the latest edition of the New Year's Day event: Gary Sinise ("Criminal Minds: Beyond Borders," "CSI: NY," "Forrest Gump"), also widely known as a humanitarian for his tireless support of America's military. He surely exemplifies this year's parade theme, "Making a Difference" — as will the many floral floats winding their way through the streets of Pasadena, Calif. As always, marching bands will perform as the parade is shown by multiple networks.
