Gallery One Exhibit: Fresh Impressions

The Friends of FEC and their Gallery Committee are pleased to offer exhibits in Galleries One and Five celebrating the artwork of students from Siuslaw and Mapleton High Schools.

Art teachers Kim Pickell, Siuslaw High, and Jessica Nelson, Mapleton High, have been instrumental in helping students provide art for this exhibit.

Additionally, the Friends of FEC have supported this special event by providing funds to students for matting and framing their art, prize money for the Awards ceremony, and refreshments for the fun and casual reception.

All students' art will be recognized, with Award judging done by the FEC Gallery committee members Jo Beaudreau and Pattie Brooks-Anderson, Show Coordinators, as well as John Leasure, Liz Johnson, Jane Connelly, Bonnie MacDuffee, Pattie Williams, and Chairperson Claudia Ignatieff.

The community, including students and their families are invited to an Award Reception on Wednesday, January 17, from 5 - 7 p.m.

The public is invited to join the event and congratulate and support youth on their talents and positive impact on our community! This Exhibit will be on display during the month of January, 2018.

FRAA & WMF Artisan Fair

The 16th annual Winter Music Festival Artisan Fair is happening this year on Friday, January 12th from 1 pm to 7 pm and on Saturday, January 13th from 11 am to 5 pm.

FRAA (Florence Regional Arts Alliance) is pleased to be the event organizer again this year, bringing together artisans, both local and regional.

There will be demonstrations on Friday by artists, Michael Wood and John Leasure and on going demonstrations by numerous other artisans as well as samples and tastings offered by Spiritopia and the Naked Winery on both days.

For more information on the artists, click on their name on the WinterMusicFestival.org website under Artisan Fair.

Admission to the Artisan Fair is free.
