Taken
Friday at 9 p.m. on KGW, KOBI, KMTR
The series inspired by the Liam Neeson-starring action movies gets a big revision as its second season begins, with only Clive Standen — as a younger incarnation of the Neeson character, CIA man Bryan Mills — and Jennifer Beals remaining from the first year's cast. Adam Goldberg ("Saving Private Ryan") and Jessica Camacho ("The Flash") become new co-stars, portraying characters who help Mills accomplish rescue missions around the globe by applying precise skill sets. Here, "S.E.R.E." finds Mills trying to escape captivity in Mexico.

Divorce
Sunday at 10 p.m., 11 p.m., 12 a.m. on HBO
Robert and Frances (Thomas Haden Church, Sarah Jessica Parker) finally have signed divorce papers as Season 2 of this tart comedy opens with "Night Moves." Frances is struggling with insomnia and a realization that things with her kids are suddenly more complicated, while Robert, who's having a severe cash-flow problem, looks for work and a new place to live. A new communication technique Diane and Nick (Molly Shannon, Tracy Letts) have adopted leads Nick to an unexpected decision.

Black Lightning
Tuesday at 9 p.m. on KWBP
Another DC Comics character joins the CW series lineup with this premiere, titled "The Resurrection," as Cress Williams ("Hart of Dixie") plays a charter-high-school principal who left his days as a crime-fighting vigilante long in the past. Or so he thought: The activities of a gang prompt him to take up his secret crusade for justice again, to protect both his family and the community at large. The show's executive producers include "Girlfriends" alums Salim Akil and Mara Brock Akil.
