Arrow

Thursday at 9 p.m. on KWBP
The ruthless Cayden James (guest star Michael Emerson) raises the stakes even higher as he launches his scheme to seize control of the city, but Oliver (Stephen Amell) is determined to outwit him using only the original Team Arrow — without the contributions of Rene, Dinah or Curtis (Rick Gonzalez, Juliana Harkavy, Echo Kellum). Things get a lot more complicated, though, when Oliver's son, William (guest star Jack Moore), lands in peril.

Faith Under Fire: The Antoinette Tuff Story

Saturday at 8 p.m., 11:02 p.m., 1 a.m. on LIFE

Multiple Grammy Award winner Toni Braxton shows off her acting chops in the title role of this new 2018 biopic that celebrates the heroism of an Atlanta single mom whose calm stoicism in the face of an unbalanced and heavily armed gunman saved the lives of students at her suburban elementary school. Drawing on her faith to stave off panic, book-keeper Antoinette Tuff connected with the troubled young man and convinced him to surrender. Trevor Morgan, Yaya DaCosta and Malik Yoba also star.

The 60th Annual Grammy Awards

Sunday at 4:30 p.m., 8 p.m. on KVAL

For the first time since 2003, this year's ceremony honoring the best artists, recordings and compositions of the year does so in a New York state of mind, as the show is held someplace other than its longtime home at the Staples Center in Los Angeles. From Madison Square Garden in New York, CBS late-night host James Corden returns to host for the second consecutive year. Reflecting the shift in venue, the show includes a Broadway tribute by Tony Award winners Patti LuPone and Ben Platt.
