Chuck Willer to speak at library Jan. 31

Join Community Rights Lane County for a presentation from Chuck Willer, Director of the Coast Range Association on Wednesday, Jan. 31, from 6:30 to 8 p.m., in the Bromley Room of the Siuslaw Public Library.

Willer will provide new information on Wall Street "owned" Western Oregon private forests and how that ownership affects management objectives.

"My work in economics strives to daylight the role of money and banks in the economy through dynamic analysis," said Willer.

The Coast Range Association was formed in 1991 and works to defend the region's interests, protect its natural and cultural endowments and restore its rivers, wetlands and forests.

The organization is committed to the stewardship of the region's natural resources.

Cultural Perspectives: school to host local logger/musician

Shoreline Christian School invites homeschool and public school students in grades K-8 to join them for an educational and insightful presentation by local singer/logger/historian, Craig Jenkins.

As part of their local history and culture curriculum, students at Shoreline Christian School in Florence have been studying logging.

Teacher Karen Nelson has invited Jenkins to share a few of his original songs about life in the woods along with stories of adventure, and misadventure, from the logging camps of the Oregon Coast Range and Alaska.

Nelson says students will enjoy unique music and storytelling while learning some of the disappearing history of our region.

Jenkins, a Mapleton resident, is a member of a multi-generational logging family and one-half of The Craig and Terry Band, also known as "The Singing Loggers."

This free event will begin at 9 a.m. on Friday, Jan. 26, at Shoreline Christian School, 4445 Highway 101, Florence.

Nelson asks parents or guardians to call 541-997-5909 to reserve a spot for themselves and their student.

AIR TIME

Florence resident Dennis Baker had his camera ready as members of the U.S. Coast Guard performed maneuvers Sunday along the Siuslaw River.

Roby's Furniture & Appliance holds annual 'Serve Day'

For the ninth year in a row, all Roby's Furniture and Appliance/The Mattress Shoppe locations will close for one day as employees engage in community service projects.

This year's closure will be today, Jan. 24.

"We view public service as a very important function," said Bob Sneddon, Florence store manager. "In past years, we've refreshed teachers' lounges at local schools, worked in the Florence Food Share community garden and helped out at the Boys and Girls Club."

This year's Serve Day project for the local Roby's staff will be a "refresh" of portions of the library at Siuslaw High School.

Beginning at 9 a.m., the Roby's crew will converge on the library to repaint the "pit" computer lab in the library, along with the walls around the library entry and behind the counter.

"We will also create a new reading zone in the library," added Sneddon.

Three overstuffed easy chairs and a pair of side tables will replace a table and four uncomfortable chairs in one corner.

In addition to the fresh paint and new furniture, some of the crew will be working in the back room at the library, clearing out obsolete and unused items that have been stored for several years.

By they time the crew is done that afternoon, students using the high school will have a space that's brighter and more inviting, along with a comfortable reading area.

"The library was very important to me when I went to high school here at Siuslaw," said Sneddon. "The table and chairs we will be replacing are original furniture from the fall of 1970 when the school first opened."

In addition to the library project, The Mattress Shoppe at Roby's furniture will deliver four twin-size youth mattresses to local families.

In November the store offered a "buy one-give one" promotion to customers and two customers donated their mattress for the project. Those were doubled by Roby's, bringing the total up to four.

Roby's Furniture and Appliance pays employees for their time on Serve Day, plus provides the furniture and mattresses. Paint and painting supplies are provided courtesy of Ron's Paint and Supply.

The value of this year's Serve Day will exceed $4,000 in products and labor.

Roby's is located at 1870 Highway 101 in Florence.

Community invited to Open Mic Nights at Homegrown

Homegrown Pub is hosting Open Mic Nights on Saturday evenings during the month of January.

Open Mic Night is a continuation of Homegrown's Late Night Happy Hour, which starts after normal dinner service at 9 p.m., and continues until 12 a.m.

"After reading the feature articles in the Siuslaw News about millennials, we felt we had an opportunity to provide something for interested Florence adults, not just millennials, to get together and have fun after most places have closed for the night," said chef and owner Kelsey Terry.

Several local musicians performed at the first Open Mic Night last week, with a large crowd in attendance.

Performances aren't limited to just musicians.

Poetry, magic, comedy, belly-dancing and other performance arts are all on the list of possibilities.

Artists are encouraged to call ahead or stop by to secure a spot in the line-up, but walk-ins are also welcome.

Previous months have included trivia nights and Pictionary.

Homegrown Pub is located at 294 Laurel St., across from the Siuslaw Museum.

For more information, call Jody at 541-997-4886.
