

Friends of the Siuslaw Library hold book sale

The Friends of the Library are hard at work gathering and sorting books for its upcoming book sale, which will be held Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 10 and 11, in the Bromley Room at the Siuslaw Public Library main branch, 1460 Ninth St. in Florence, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The Friends welcome donations of books, DVDs and CDs. If you have items in good condition to donate, please bring them to the Circulation desk at the Florence branch. Receipts for tax purposes are available upon request. If you know you will want a receipt, be sure to have a count of the quantity of each type of item you are donating. The sale will also include items withdrawn from circulation in the library.

While you are at the library, consider filling out an application for membership in the Friends of the Siuslaw Public Library.

All members will have an exclusive "early bird" hour beginning at 9 a.m. on Saturday. Applications for membership will also be available at the book sale.

Don't miss this great opportunity to get some great books at bargain prices, and help the Friends and the library at the same time.

The Friends of the Siuslaw Public Library is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and all proceeds benefit the Siuslaw Public Library.

Contact SiuslawLibraryFriends@gmail.com for more information.

LCC Florence Center holds Jan. 31 open house

The Lane Community College Florence Center will be holding its Spring Continuing Education Open House on Wednesday, Jan. 31, at 1 p.m.

The college will be sharing information on upcoming non-credit classes and Outward Ventures, along with offering a sneak peek at its planned fall trip to Ireland. Attendees will have a chance to win a $50 credit for a spring offering.

For more information, call 541-997-8444.

SOS receives donation from animal sanctuary

Members of the Sacred Animal Sanctuary recently began donating food for the animals of clients of Siuslaw Outreach Services (SOS). The sanctuary is located in Walton, Ore., and takes in all types of animals that are aging or need end of life care. Representatives also work with local senior groups to provide contact and quality time with the animals in their care.
