By NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

Siuslaw has a busy weekend, with this past Thursday kicking off three consecutive days of wrestling as the Viks close in on district competition in a little over a week.

Thursday, Siuslaw hosted the first of two final home meets, hosting Coquille and Philomath for a three-way dual meet that included wins for senior 126-pounder Richard Huff, the reigning 120-lb. 4A state champion, as well as wins for sophomore Matthew Horrillo at 285 lbs. and freshman Brady Libby in an exhibition match at 113 lbs.

Full results were unavailable at press time.

Yesterday, the Vikings began a two-day stand at the annual Cottage Grove Classic Invitational, which includes teams from Cascade Christian, Cleveland, Crescent Valley, Glide, Klamath Union, La Pine, Lakeview, Liberty and Pleasant Hill.

Matches continue today, beginning at 10 a.m.

Siuslaw will be at home Friday, Feb. 2, beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Sailors clip Eagles, 50-37

The Sailors picked up their third Mountain West League basketball victory Thursday night on their home hardwood. Mapleton took control of its game with McKenzie early, utilizing a combination of high-pressure defense and scoring from both inside and outside the arc.

"We felt confident we could win as long as we executed and played four quarters of basketball," said Mapleton coach Eric Wolgamott. "The guys played hard the whole way and stayed very focused."

By halftime, the Sailors held a 25-17 lead and never relinquished their advantage throughout the second half despite increased pressure from the Eagles.

Early in the third quarter, senior post Dominic Wells nabbed a steal and scored on a fastbreak for the first basket of the half. But McKenzie responded, scoring the next 6 points before sophomore post Nate Neece grabbed an offensive rebound that sparked an 8-point Mapleton scoring run.

Junior guard Evan Moso drained a long 3-pointer then, moments later

Mapleton sophomore Nate Neece had 12 points off the glass Thursday.

The Vikings finished the first half of the Far West League basketball season last night (after press deadlines) after a pair of home stands that began Tuesday against North Bend.

In the girls game, North Bend junior Haley Edwards gave the Lady Vikings a tough time in double-digit scoring, although Siuslaw freshman guard Brea Blankenship nearly matched Edwards' 14 points with 12 of her own.

But North Bend took the lead early and never really looked back, although Siuslaw was poised to close the gap

"Time Out"

BY LLOYD LITTLE
Retired teacher, coach and game official

(With more than 55 years as an athlete, coach, official, parent and spectator, I've gained some insights and perspectives regarding athletics. In this weekly column, I share what I've learned about sports from these multiple points of view.)

A WINNING VIEWPOINT

Most people like to think of themselves as winners and associate themselves with winning teams. We release endorphins when we feel good, and winning feels good to players and spectators alike.

You need only to look at the faces of spectators and players immediately after the contest; we know the outcome by the look on their faces.

I would like to test this attitude with a simple situation.

Please do not read ahead and, instead, respond with your emotions when asked.

Just think of them in your head, there is no need to write them down and be honest with yourself and
