The Four: Battle for Stardom

Thursday at 8 p.m. on KLSR

This competition has had a fairly compact run, marked by the fact that after a little over a month, it airs its two-hour season finale here. The last four contestants who have vied to stay in the game — literally — face the music, also literally, to be declared the winner. Sean Combs, DJ Khaled, Meghan Trainor and Charlie Walk are the mentors and judges, with Fergie serving as host.

Wonder Woman

Saturday at 8 p.m., 12:25 a.m. on HBO

Although she introduced the character a year earlier in "Superman v Batman: Dawn of Justice," Israeli actress Gal Gadot emerged as an international superstar in the title role of this blockbuster follow-up, one of the biggest cinematic success stories of 2017. Partly an origin story, Patty Jenkins' wildly entertaining film finds Wonder Woman leaving her island home to join American pilot Steve Trevor (Chris Pine) to fight for the Allies in World War I. Robin Wright, Danny Huston and David Thewlis also star.

The Bachelor Winter Games

Tuesday at 8 p.m. on KATU, KEZI

Combine the romance of "The Bachelor" with the competition of winter sports, and you get ... this. The limited-run series, airing on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the next two weeks, places veterans of the series franchise as well as some international singles at a Vermont resort. Of course, Chris Harrison is the host, joined by ESPN's Hannah Storm and Ashley Brewer of Los Angeles' KABC-TV for commentary. Figure-skating greats Nancy Kerrigan, Tai Babilonia and Randy Gardner make appearances.
