WINTER STEELHEAD: WATER DEPENDENT

This time of year, water conditions for winter steelhead fishing can vacillate between too low and clear, and too high and muddy. Successful anglers will:

- 1) adjust their gear and tackle for current conditions, and/or
- 2) be ready to hit the water when water

HUFF PINS SECOND AT STATE

By NED HICKSON

While Viking senior Richard Huff was winning his semifinals wrestling match at 120 lbs. by a major decision during Saturday's Oregon Schools Activities Association's (OSAA) 4A state wrestling tournament, Crook County senior Pacer Quire was doing the same on the other side of the bracket.

Both steadily worked their way through the bracket toward the title round.

After Huff defeated No. 3 seed Alex Duran 16-2 to earn his spot in the championship round, he found himself facing Quire, a wrestler who had defeated Huff by technical fall earlier emerging into the second round before being pinned by Quire some 53 seconds later, finishing second in the state overall.

Huff, who won the 113-lb. state crown last year, went 42-6 this season, including claiming the district title.

Along with Huff, freshmen Brady Libby, wrestling at 106 lbs., and Elijah LaCossee, wrestling at 120 lbs., were on the mats at Memorial Coliseum in Portland. Both went 1-2 and were eliminated during the second round of consolation matches at last Friday's OSAA state tournament.

Viks end season with 3-0 run

The Viking boys basketball team finished the season at 12-12 and 4-6 in the Far West League after defeating the Lancers at South Umpqua High School last Friday. The win capped a 3-0 winning streak that began with a victory at home against Douglas the week before during Senior Night, followed by an upset win in overtime on the road at North Bend during the Bulldogs' own Senior Night.

Friday, senior Jake Hickson, who had scored 29 points two nights earlier at North Bend, teamed up with fellow senior Jared Brandt to post a combined 22 points to lead the Viks over the Lancers — Hickson with 12 points and Brandt with 10.

At halftime, the Vikings had a 25-20

SHS 37 SUHS: 55

The Lady Vikings finished their season last Friday on the road at Tri City, where that took on South Umpqua with offense generated almost entirely by underclassmen led by freshman point guard Lindsey Long. Of the 37 points scored by the Lady Vikings, 30 came from underclassmen, including 16 of those points from Long, who went 6-of-9 from the field and had a pair of 3-pointers.

Fellow freshmen Brea Blankenship and Gracie Freudenthal also scored for Siuslaw, including a

Siuslaw Youth Soccer registration continues

The Siuslaw Youth Soccer program is gearing up for its spring 2018 season.

Regular registration is open now through March 12. The registration fee is $55 and scholarships are available.

Late registration will be March 13-19, with an additional $20 late fee; no scholarships will be available during the late registration period.

No registrations will be accepted after March 19.

The Youth Soccer Program's annual general meeting will be held Thursday, Feb. 15, at 6:30 p.m. at the Siuslaw Middle School Commons.

All voting members of the soccer association are encouraged to attend. Voting members are all adults who have registered with the club as parents/guardians or coaches.

The annual general meeting will include a club update and voting for three board positions and two bylaws amendments.
