C.R.O.W. presents Disney's Tarzan

This April 13-15, C.R.O.W. will present Disney's Tarzan - the exhilarating mainstage musical based on Disney's epic animated musical adventure and Edgar Rice Burrough's Tarzan of the Apes. Disney's Tarzan features heart-pumping music by rock legend Phil Collins and a book by Tony Award-winning playwright, David Henry Hwang.

High-flying excitement and hits like the Academy Award winning "You'll Be in My Heart" as well as "Son of Man" and "Two Worlds" make Tarzan an unforgettable theatrical experience.

The Tarzan story is familiar to all generations, and many of our local Florence residents may have grown up reading the books and watching the many huge, Blockbuster-type movies.

Washed up on the shores of West Africa, an infant boy is taken in and raised by gorillas who name him Tarzan. Apart from striving for acceptance from his ape father, Tarzan's life is mostly monkey business until a human expedition treks into his tribe's territory and he encounters creatures like himself for the first time.

Tarzan struggles to navigate a jungle, thick with emotion as he discovers his animal upbringing clashing with his human instincts.

C.R.O.W. is already swinging on the vines of rehearsals, planning a wonderful, completely immersive jungle set and lighting plan which takes advantage of the Florence Event's Center new system, and also planning some ape-sized highlights for audiences. One particularly spine-tingling element will be the live performances by Revelers Aerial Works on 20 foot silks, suspended over the stage.

The show's title role will be played by multi-faceted high-school senior, Cameron Utz, with the lovely and talented Alizabeth Norton opposite him as Jane.

Tarzan's ape mother, Kala, will be portrayed by Halle Anderson, and giant silverback, Kerchak, will be brought to life by Jacob Ternyik. William Owens will be singing jazz and "Trashin' the Camp" as an adorable sidekick, Terk.

The large cast of Tarzan consists of approximately 65 children and young adults, ranging in age from 4 years old through early 20's.

C.R.O.W. will present the show with Broadway-caliber technical design, staging, music, and choreography, creating a well-rounded presentation that will make audiences want to cheer and beat their chests with happiness!

Tarzan will be in all hearts, and promises to be "swingin' fun" for the whole family. To reserve your tickets, please visit eventcenter.org and buy online, or call (541) 997-1994. For pictures and more info, visit www.crowkids.com.

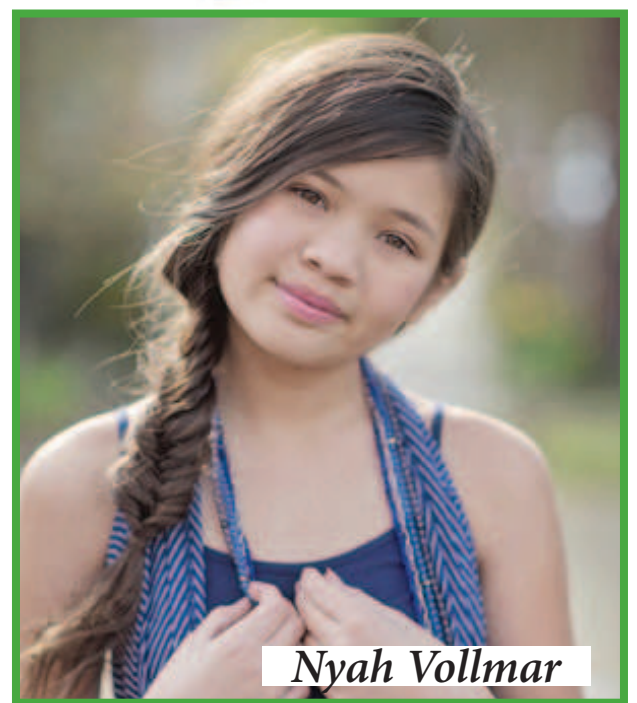

Music. It means a lot to most of us. And to Florence's favorite jazz vocal ensemble, music drives them to perform as it has for a decade and a half. In fact, they hold music in such high regard that the FloTones named their next benefit concert "Music Matters." Their last benefit before Christmas raised over $1,300 for Florence's Boys and Girls Club. The beneficiary of "Music Matters" will be the Siuslaw Schools music programs.

"Music Matters" will occupy the Florence Events Center's flat floor for 2 performances on Saturday and Sunday, May 26 and 27. And in a break from previous FloTones performances, the 'Tones will share the stage with four talented school-kid singers - "The C.R.O.W.Kids" and the very popular "Miles To Go" jazz quintet.

Songs on the FloTones playlist include the fan-favorite "Begin the Beguine" and new tunes including "Misty" and "For All We Know". The "C.R.O.W Kids" performance will round out the first half of the show. After intermission, "Miles To Go" will hold the stage joined by popular vocalist Maree Beers with a guest appearance by teen singing sensation Nyah Vollmer.

Tickets will be available soon at $20 and $10 for students. Music matters to the FloTones, the C.R.O.W Kids, Miles To Go and our Siuslaw Schools music programs. We hope it also matters to you and you will put this benefit concert on your calendar.
