Marshals label fire on Highway 101 suspicious

BY MARK BRENNAN
 Siuslaw News

Last week's fire at the former La Bu La Restaurant has been officially labeled as suspicious by investigators from the Oregon State Fire Marshal's office and the fire investigation unit of the Oregon State Police.

Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue Chief Director Jim Langborg shared the information in a brief statement to the media, updating the community on the status of the investigation into the cause of the March 1 fire, which gutted the building at 1073 Highway 101.

First responders from Gardiner and Mapleton assisted Siuslaw Valley in the containment efforts at the site.

The area remains cordoned off, both to protect the public and to allow a continuation of the investigation, which Langborg said is ongoing.

The scene continues to be unsafe at this time and no one should approach the site.

Citizen volunteers sought for Dunes City committees

Several opportunities exist for Dunes City residents to contribute to their community.

The Planning Commission is seeking a new member to replace Brett McKnight, who recently resigned.

Dunes City marijuana LUBA case dismissed

BY JARED ANDERSON
 Siuslaw News

The Land Use Board of Appeals (LUBA) has dismissed a claim by Dunes City resident Catherine Caudle, which requested Ordinance 245 be repealed.

Dunes City councilors passed the ordinance on Sept. 13, 2017, which placed a temporary ban on marijuana grow facilities in the city. The ordinance did not affect existing marijuana grow operations.

If LUBA had sided with the petition, the ban would have been lifted and further marijuana grow facilities would have been allowed in the city, according to city officials.

However, with LUBA's decision, the ban will continue to be in place until this November, when voters will ultimately determine the future of marijuana grows in the city.

Caudle now has 21 days to file a petition for judicial review of the LUBA decision with the Oregon Court of Appeals.

More information regarding the decision will be published in Saturday's edition of the Siuslaw News.

considers land use applications and revisions to land use codes. Members of the Planning Commission also provide oversight of the City's Citizen Involvement Program.

This position offers an opportunity to learn how the implementation of land use code takes place, what must be done to change codes, and the process of public hearings.

The Budget Committee is seeking two additional members to replace vacancies created as terms ended.

This is the group that helps guide the fiscal future of the city by setting spending guidelines.

Hall, 82877 Spruce St. in Westlake, or call 541-997-3338 to obtain an application.

The application is also available at the City's website. There is no cutoff date for applications, however early applicants may be appointed as soon as the City Council meeting at its next regularly scheduled time, which is the second Wednesday of every month, beginning at 6 p.m.

Applicants will be notified of the date the City Council will consider their application and should plan on attending the meeting.

All applicants must reside in Dunes City.
