

First Community Insurance earns Safeco ‘President’s Award’

First Community Insurance has earned the President’s Award from Safeco Insurance for outstanding performance. The agency has received this prestigious award multiple times since its establishment in 2007. Only 245 President’s Awards were given this year across the country to top-performing independent insurance agencies that sell Safeco Insurance personal lines products. The President’s Award is one of the highest honors Safeco gives to independent agent partners to recognize their success, hard work, commitment to service and high achievement. “We are very excited to be recognized by Safeco for our partnership and performance,” said Willie King, Vice President of First Community Insurance. “Our selection for the President’s Award is a result of the hard work of our agents, along with our clients sharing the word about the rates and service our agency has to offer.” Established in 1957, First Community Insurance is headquartered in Coquille, Ore.,

with 28 branches throughout Oregon, including Florence. First Community Insurance is an independent agency representing many highly rated personal auto and home insurance companies. The agency is wholly owned by First Community Credit Union. For more information on First Community Insurance, go to www.getfci.com.

Florence Unitarians hear about ‘Perennial Philosophy’

On Sunday, March 11, at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, the Rev. Dr. Ruth Miller will lead the worship service titled “The Perennial Philosophy.” Miller says, “Unitarian-Universalists live a mixture of religious traditions, finding balance in the core of them all, which Aldous Huxley and others have called the Perennial Philosophy.”

Miller will give the community a brief look at that core, and explore how people can choose to live in a way that honors all those traditions. The meeting will be from 10 to 11 a.m. FUUF is located at 87738 Highway 101, at Heceta Beach Road, and is wheelchair accessible. For more information, visit www.florenceuuf.org.
