

Instinct
Sunday at 8 p.m. on
After his run on "The Wife," Tony Award winner Alan Cumming returns to series work by premiering as an ex-CIA man turned college professor and author. In this "Pilot," he's forced to channel his old skills when his first book is used as sort of a play-by-play manual ... by a serial killer. The adaptation of a novel by James Patterson ("Zoo") also features Bojana Novakovic, Naveen Andrews and Sharon Leal. Patterson and Cumming also are executive producers of the show.

Shadowhunters
Tuesday at 8 p.m. on FREE
The diabolical Valentine is dead as this action fantasy returns for its third season, but his absence leaves a void to which both Shadowhunters and Downworlders must adjust in a premiere called "On Infernal Ground." As Clary (Katherine McNamara) struggles with her secret about Raziel's wish, Alec (Matthew Daddario) pressures Jace (Dominic Sherwood) to open up about what he and Clary are hiding. Luke (Isaiah Mustafa), meanwhile, is finding it nearly impossible to fend off his partner Ollie's (Alexandra Ordolis) questions.

Krypton
Wednesday at 10 p.m., 2:30 a.m. on SYFY
Superman fans will recognize the title of this new fantasy series as a reference to the doomed home planet of the infant who would grow up on Earth to become the Man of Steel. Here's the twist: This show is set two full generations before Krypton blew up. The action primarily revolves around Seg-El (newcomer Cameron Cuffe), Superman's grandfather, who wrestles with a life-and-death decision about his world's fate. Georgina Campbell, Shaun Sipos, Blake Ritson and Elliot Cowan also star.
