Friends of Yachats Library hold book sale March 30-31

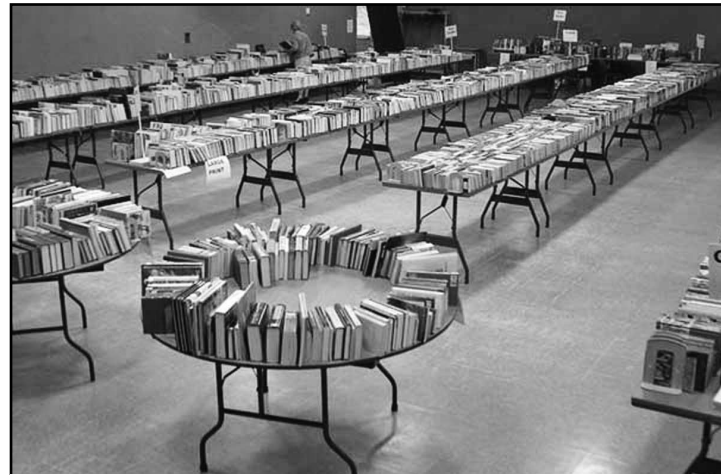

People can stock up on books, CDs, DVDs and books on CDs while contributing to the literary health of Yachats at the upcoming Friends of Yachats Library Book Sale.

This year's sale will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, March 30, and Saturday, March 31, at the Yachats Commons, W. Fourth St. and Highway 101.

Credit cards will be accepted as well as cash and local checks.

For more information, call 541-547-3741.

Bargain hunters, dealers and book lovers take note — there will be hundreds of almost new, gently used, old treasures, mysteries, cook-books, gardening books, fiction, nonfiction, children's books, biography, travel, history and humor in hardcover and paperback.

Browsing is easy with all books arranged by categories.

On Friday, hardbacks, trade paperbacks/softcovers will be $1 and paperbacks will be 50 cents.

There is a specially priced section including rare books, signed copies, book sets and coffee table books.

The sale also includes audio tapes, DVDs, music CDs and puzzles priced at $1 each and books on CDs for $4.

The purple Yachats Library cloth bags can be purchased for $2.

Saturday is bag day. For $4, people can fill a plastic grocery bag or Yachats Library bag and fill it for $3.

Proceeds from the sale will go to the Library Move Project and help with the fundraising needed for the library's move to a new location.

If you love to read you will want to be at this sale.

The 30-plus members of the Yachats Arts Guild will have some of their work on display and for sale during the book sale.

The Yachats Arts Guild has been a growing group since its original seven founders in 2007. Its mission is to support and promote Central Oregon Coast artists and to call attention to the beauty of the Oregon Coast. Here is a chance for people to admire local artists, learn more about the guild and add to their collection.

The Yachats Ladies Club will have coffee, tea and home-baked goodies available in the Commons kitchen during the sale. All proceeds from the refreshment sales go to their organization.
