Western Lane Ambulance District held a seminar on Saturday, March 24, entitled “Stop the Bleed” at LCC’s Florence Campus. The workshop was created by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and FEMA to give participants the opportunity to practice techniques to stop blood loss after traumatic events occur. Approximately 35 people attended the interactive series of workshops that went from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Rotary seeks submissions for 4-Way-Test Speech Contest

Any Siuslaw area high school student (public, private, or home-schooled) in grades 9-12 who cares about ethical standards and behavior in today’s world is invited to participate in the 2018 Rotary International 4-WayTest Speech Contest.

The contest will be held Thursday, April 19, at 4 p.m. at the Florence Events Center.

Three finalists will then present their speeches and receive certificates and cash prizes totaling $1,500 at a Rotary meeting on Tuesday, April 24 at noon.

The winning speaker will also be expected to compete in a “Speak Off” at the Rotary District Conference in Ashland, Ore., on May 5.

First place prize for the local contest is $750, second place will receive $500, and third place is $250.

There are even more cash prizes available at the District level.

All participants will be required to take the Rotary 4-Way Test and apply it to real life throughout their speeches. The 4-Way Test has four principles:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better freindship?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

The choices for topics are endless. Would the Super Bowl pass the 4-Way Test? What about homework assignments? How about social networking?

All speeches must be original and may not be less than 5 minutes or more than 7 minutes. Speeches should also be memorized.

For information on participating, including an application and guidelines, visit www.theflorencerotary.org and choose the tab “Club Youth Programs.”

Those interested can also contact Committee Chair Meg Spencer via email at mspencer1818@yahoo.com.
