

Electric charging stations installed at River House

Klaus Witte, owner of Top Hydraulics in Florence, was the first to charge his Tesla, an electrically powered vehicle at the new Electric Vehicle Charging stations at The River House Inn on Bay Street in Florence. There are two chargers designed specifically for Teslas and two stations for other brands of EV's. Craig Sanders, manager of the River House, believes the stations will draw visitors to the area. "Our new charging stations make it even easier for Tesla owners, and owners of other kinds of EV's, to make the exciting scenic 363 mile drive from Oregon to California."

Unitarians discuss relevance of Easter

The Rev. Dr. Marcia Pearce will lead the Easter worship service at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship (FUUF) on Sunday, April 1, from 10 to 11 a.m. The title of her message will be: "The Relevance of Easter for Us, Today."

Pearce said she loves the symbolic colored eggs, peeps and bunnies, but really looks forward to talking more about what the Resurrection Celebration really means today.

"There is something much more potent waiting to be discovered, individually. It is unique to each one of us right now," she said.

Pearce invites the Florence community to join FUUF on Easter and take home a piece of Jerusalem Stone, upon which people may inscribe their own "seed" word for personal re-birth in this time of spring renewal.

Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Road, is wheelchair accessible. Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.
