Undefeated in Salem

Members of the Siuslaw Volleyball Association's 12U team won the tournament title at Chemeketa College in Salem over the weekend, going undefeated through the tourney, including winning all matches without a tie-breaker. In the championship, Siuslaw defeated Eugene's Webfoot 12U in two sets, 25-16, 25-8. The team is coached by Siuslaw High School amumni Holly Smith (center). The team now advances to regionals at the Portland Expo Center, April 27-29.

Siuslaw freshman Brea Blankenship (center) won the 800-meter race at Junction City with a time of 2:42.10 and as third in the 1500 meters with a time of 5:33.91.

Siuslaw keeps steady pace

Viking tracksters had a busy weekend with top performances in both Junction City and Roseburg

The Siuslaw track and field team spent its time serving double-duty this past weekend, with athletes competing in both Junction City and Roseburg.

At the Junction City Invitational, sophomores Brea Blankenship and Ryan Rendon-Padilla turned in stand-out performances in the javelin and 800 meters, respectively.

Padilla launched the javelin 152 feet, 2 inches to win the event, followed with a second-place throw by Viking freshman Skyler Loomis with a personal best of 135-9.

In Roseburg, Siuslaw sophomore Hannah Rannow entered the school record books with a 3000-meters time of 10:59.09, garnering her the eighth-fastest women's time in Siuslaw's history.

In the 800-meter race, Blankenship edged out Elmira junior Andrea Griffin for the win after crossing the finish less than a second ahead in 2:42.10. Blankenship went on to place third in the 1500 meters (5:33.9) and also ran a leg on the winning 4x400-meter relay
