MEET JILL
Jill is an active young lady filled with lots of love and energy. She needs consistent daily exercise with her new owners. She loves to go on walks/runs and is a fetching master! Jill still needs work with her manners but is sweet and is very keen to learn. While she can be very friendly, Jill is both people and dog social. She would certainly need a meet and greet with all members of her new household. We recommend that every family member be at least 14 years or older due to her large size and high energy level.
