Governor Brown signs Child Care Safety Bill into law

SALEM — Governor Kate Brown signed HB 4065 into law Monday, approving legislation that allows the state to take stronger, quicker action against both licensed and illegal child care facilities.

Among the actions allowed by the bill are significantly higher penalties for those who violate the law.

In addition to passing the bill, the Oregon Legislature approved Brown's request for nearly $2 million in funding to increase staff in the Early Learning Division to "address safety and quality issues, and to fund testing for lead in drinking water at small child care facilities," said Brown.

The additional staffing is an effort to reduce caseloads and allow for more coordination between the Early Learning Division and the Oregon Department of Human Services on instances of child abuse or neglect in child care facilities.

"Oregon families deserve safe and high-quality child care regardless of where they live or who they choose to care for their children," Brown said on Monday. "HB 4065 and the additional staffing funding will help provide the state with the tools and resources needed to protect our youngest Oregonians."

"We know there is more work to do, and will continue to focus on improving Oregon's system of early education and care."

Florence Police plan DUII enforcement for Friday

The Florence Police Department will be participating in additional Oregon Impact funded DUII enforcement this Friday, April 20.

The Florence PD is reminding residents that in every state and the District of Columbia, impaired driving is illegal. Whether by drugs — legal or illegal — alcohol, or a combination of both drugs and alcohol, impaired driving puts the driver, their passengers and other road users at risk.

In the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's National Roadside Survey conducted in 2013-14, some 20 percent of drivers surveyed tested positive for potentially impairing drugs.

Law enforcement is encouraging the public to work together with officers to share this life-saving message:

Impaired driving is illegal and deadly.

The Florence Police Department has specially trained officers that will be on the lookout for drug and/or alcohol impaired drivers in addition to normal patrols on Friday.

According to St. Patrick's Day DUII Enforcement Statistics from last month, Florence Police made 4 DUII arrests. Local police participated in additional DUII patrols with grant funding provided by Oregon Impact.

Police issued three traffic citations and made 16 total traffic contacts for various violations during the grant funded time.

MEMBERS SOUGHT FOR PORT BUDGET COMMITTEE

The Port of Siuslaw Board of Commissioners invites applications from residents interested in serving on the Port's Budget Committee. Interested persons should obtain an application from the Port of Siuslaw Office at 100 Harbor St., or from the port's website, www.portofsiuslaw.com. Applications will be accepted until 5 p.m., Friday, March 30.

Applicants must be registered voters residing within the Port of Siuslaw district. The district boundary encompasses most of the Siuslaw River watershed, including the communities of Florence and Dunes City and extending upriver to Mapleton, Walton, Lorane and Blachly.

The Budget Committee is a standing committee of five members that sits jointly with the Port Commission to publicly review and revise the annual budget. The Budget Committee approves the budget and tax levy. The budget then goes to the Port Commission to be adopted.

Committee members serve three-year terms which expire on June 30.

A Budget Committee Member is expected to spend up to 20 hours of their time. That includes reviewing the budget and meeting one to three times from May through June each year.

The committee may be called to meet again during the year in the event of a significant budgetary change.

Questions should be directed to the port office at 541-997-3426.

Dunes City to discuss police protection tonight

The Dunes City Council has scheduled a Town Hall Meeting tonight, April 18, beginning at 6 p.m., to discuss law enforcement.

The town hall will be held at Dunes City Hall, 82877 Spruce St., in Dunes City.

"The City Council would like to hear from Dunes City residents about their concerns with law enforcement protection in Dunes City," said Mayor Robert Forsythe. "We're looking for some feedback from our residents so we can explore potential options to provide police protection."

Council President Sheldon Meyer concurred, adding, "We need to set some priorities and hope the citizens will come forward to help identify what those priorities should be."

Dunes City residents are encouraged to attend this open discussion with City Council members.
