It only took a total of nine innings in last Friday night's home softball doubleheader for the Lady Vikings to send the Trojans back to Douglas. By the time the final pitch of the nightcap crossed the plate, Siuslaw had scored a total of 36 runs in a pair of games that ended early due to the 10-run rule.

It was a sweet turnaround from earlier in the week, when the Lady Viks returned from Winston with an 8-1 loss to the Trojans.

"It was a complete reversal of fortune," said Siuslaw coach Sean O'Mara. "An aggressive mentality on the bases and in the batter's box was the main focal point of our last

Siuslaw baseball coach Thomas Shinn said that the "biggest part of becoming a better ballclub is continually playing hard and learning as you go."

And in spite of being swept by the Trojans in all three match-ups last week, Shinn is confident his team is playing hard and learning.

"Defensively, we are playing better baseball," Shinn said, and only having a combined 3 errors in 12 innings of baseball would suggest he's right.

However, offensively the Viks are still trying to find some consistency, particularly against strong pitching.

In Friday's doubleheader, the Viks

BEST BETS FOR FISHING

Spring can offer some of the best fishing of the year, with almost unlimited possibilities. Check out some of the seasonal opportunities on the MyODFW webpage at www.myodfw.com/fishing/seasonal-opportunities. In the meantime, here are some highlights from this week's Recreation Report.

- If you're not ready to put the winter steelhead fishing gear away, the Nestucca, Wilson and Siletz on the north coast are best bets.
- With the onset of warm temperatures, warmwater fishing is heating up in the Southwest Zone at places like Johnsons Mill Pond, maistem Coquille, Tenmile Lakes, Fords Pond, Galesville Reservoir, Agate Lake, Applegate Reservoir, Emigrant Reservoir, Lake Selmac, Lost Creek Reservoir, Willow Lake and others.
- Water conditions on the Clackamas are good, giving anglers a decent shot at some late winter and early summer steelhead.
- Crane Prairie and Wickiup reservoirs opened April 22 and anglers are reporting good fishing.
