SHS student traveling to Costa Rica

Siuslaw High School junior and 4-H member Danielle Goldblatt will be traveling to Costa Rica to live with a family for a month through the 4-H program. She hopes to fund part of her trip through her photography.

Goldblatt moved to Florence in January 2017 when her family relocated from Eastern Oregon.

She loves school and learning and is an honor roll student and in the National Honors Society. She also loves animals, especially cats, music, playing her guitar and singing, traveling, reading - and especially photography.

Goldblatt has been active in the 4-H program in Grant County since she was 9 years old, doing annual fair projects in cooking and food preservation, horticulture, art and photography, as well as raising many project animals such as sheep, a goat, a rabbit, dogs, chickens and riding horses.

4-H is where she developed a passion for photography and has won awards both at the county and state level. Goldblatt takes a variety of different types of pictures, but is really passionate about photographing animals, flowers and water-scapes. She looks forward to attending college in the fall of 2019, where she would like to earn a degree in the medical field as well as continuing her interest in photography.

She would also like to get a local 4-H program started in Florence to help enrich and inspire other kids' lives.

While she is in Costa Rica this summer, Goldblatt will be able to take amazing photos of the local flora and fauna.

Goldblatt is the Florence Regional Arts Alliance (FRAA) youth artist of the month. She will be featured during the month of May and at the 2nd Saturday Gallery Tour on May 12 at the FRAA Art Center, 120 Maple St.

She is hoping she will be able to sell some of her current pictures to help fundraise for the Costa Rica trip. She is also available to take senior pictures for classmates at a low rate to gain additional experience.
