

Meghan Markle: An American Princess
Friday at 8 p.m. on KLSR
The approach of a royal wedding means a parade of related specials, and this new two-hour offering is part of that pack. The title leaves no guesswork as to the focus, as the program concentrates on the personal and professional histories of Prince Harry's actress fiancée, with her half-sister Samantha Markle and some of Meghan's colleagues from the series "Suits" among the interviewees. Journalist Piers Morgan and Paul Burrell — Princess Diana's former butler — also weigh in.

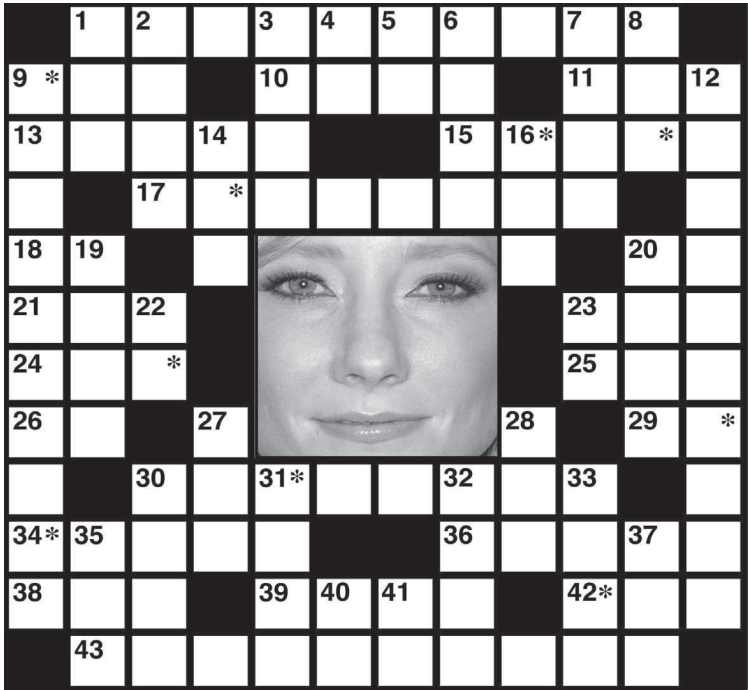

Dunkirk
Saturday at 8 p.m., 2:50 a.m. on HBO
Christopher Nolan received his first Oscar nomination as best director for this gripping 2017 combat drama, which depicts the Dunkirk evacuation from three perspectives: land, sea and air. The story is told with minimal dialogue, but Nolan creates suspense through the Oscar-nominated cinematography and score (by Hans Zimmer). Featured in the huge ensemble of this international co-production are Fionn Whitehead, James D'Arcy, Kenneth Branagh, Cillian Murphy, Tom Hardy and former One Direction singer Harry Styles in his acting debut.

Deception
Sunday at 10:01 p.m. on KATU, KEZI
The probe of a secret group turns out to have a personal impact on Cameron and Kay (Jack Cutmore-Scott, Ilfenesh Hadera) — since one of them turns out to have personal ties to a group member — in the new episode "The Unseen Hand." Lenora Crichlow, Amatory Nolasco, Justin Chon, Laila Robins and Vinnie Jones also star.
