Rhody Days Show & Shine T-shirts now available

Rhody Days Show & Shine shirts are now available, showcasing a classic design and commemorating a historic year.

"By the way, I have to say, it is our 25th anniversary for this show," said Jeanette Scalera, who has been putting on this show for 23 years. "We are very proud at the success of the car show and are amazed at how many cars this show draws. Even though the weather has not been cooperative the last 3 years, the feedback has been positive and encourages us for future years to come."

T-Shirts for this year's Rhody Days Show & Shine are on sale now at Twin Lakes Store, located three miles North of Florence on Highway 101, and at the registration booth set up in the parking lots of Grocery Outlet and City Lights Cinemas during the May 18 Show & Shine Pre-Registration from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Shirts will also be on sale on Saturday, May 19, during the car show at the same location. The registration booth opens at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and will host T-shirt sales and the favorite raffle that runs from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

This year's T-shirts show two impressive classic vehicles from local owners and the U.S. Coast Guard Helicopter.

"This year we added the helicopter to our graphics to commemorate the 100-year anniversary of the Siuslaw Coast Guard Station," said Scalera.

Dela Mora Scholarship sets new fundraising high

MARK BRENNAN/SIUSLAW NEWS

Members of the family of Jose Dela Mora prepared and served nearly 1,000 tacos in an hour this past Sunday, May 6, at the Crossroads Assembly of God Church in Florence. Proceeds from the fund raiser will go to support recipients of the Jose Dela Mora Scholarship Fund. The scholarship's namesake, Jose Dela Mora, was entering his senior year at Siuslaw High School when he drowned while swimming with friends at Lake Woahink, on June 26, 2015. The Dela Mora, owners of Rosa's Mexican Restaurant, established the scholarship in memory of Jose and is awarded to students pursuing an education related to the arts or wrestling, two of Jose's passions.

OCHS temporarily closes Thrift Store on Bay Street

The Oregon Coast Humane Society (OCHS) has announced it will be temporarily closing the organization's Thrift Store on Bay Street in Historic Old Town.

The closure is mainly a response to a number of fundamental changes suggested by the Oregon Department of Justice (DOJ) in the wake of an inquiry conducted last year by the DOJ, which has impacted volunteer participation at OCHS.

The first major step taken by the OCHS board, after their election in April, was to hire Interim Executive Director Barbara Butzer, who has begun working with the board, staff and volunteers to implement DOJ recommendations.

Butzer is also tasked with communicating with current volunteers and staff in an effort to ascertain volunteer concerns and address them.

"OCHS will be working with new Interim Executive Director Barbara Butzer to implement a volunteer recruitment effort, update job descriptions and improve staff training. Over the last 18 months, OCHS volunteer and membership numbers have plummeted due to the DOJ investigation and the press that followed. It is this board's purpose to reverse that trend through proper governance and open communication," said OCHS Board President Jack Hannigan.

OCHS has consistently been voted as one of the best places to volunteer in Florence and is well respected as one of the city's 501(c)3 organizations.

Public support for the work done at OCHS remains high as evidenced by a number of recent donations, one of which is significant at approximately $1 million.

Hannigan and the OCHS board are determined to work with Butzer to create an organization that operates legally, ethically and with deep concern for the animals under the groups care.

"Florence's heart for pets beats strong, and the OCHS board is working diligently to serve the community and its dogs and cats. We appreciate the support and patience of our members while we work together to bring stability to this revered organization," Hannigan said.

The OCHS Thrift Store is one of the main funding sources for the group and customers have consistently donated items to the store and purchased thousands of dollars in merchandise a month from the busy Bay Street shop.

Hannigan wants to ensure that level of community support will not be interrupted for long.

"We have a reputation as a terrific place to shop and we never want to disappoint our customers. We offer a great selection of merchandise at a very fair price, and we always want shoppers at the Thrift Store to have a great experience," he said. "We will be back better than ever. Remember, every dollar goes to support our mission statement. It's all about the care and welfare of the animals."
