

Rhody from page A5

The Junior Princesses have spent time one-on-one with a Senior Princess and had time to develop a real bond.

"I want to be a princess when I grow up," first-grader Aleeya said. "This helps me be less shy."

Second-grader Jasmine said she joined the court because she loves to dance and play with friends. She is also a legacy as her mom, aunt and grandma have previously been Rhododendron Princesses.

"I want to make people happy," said third-grader Abigail. "I like to meet people, dance with people and help my community."

Fourth-grader Kylee is a "fourth generation Siuslaw Viking" who loves school and her family and hopes to compete in the Olympics for gymnastics.

According to fifth-grader Brittney, "Being a part of the princess float in the parade is like being a part of Florence, a part of the community."

As many of the Rhody Court members said, they joined this year's Rhododendron Festival to connect with the community — and hope to continue through the Coronation and the rest of Rhody Days.

Bartlett said, "Coronation night is this Thursday, so get your tickets today."

Tickets are $10, and $6 for those 18 and under. They are available at the Florence Events Center Box Office, 715 Quince St., and at eventcenter.org.

After the Coronation, the entire Rhody Court will appear in the Grand Floral Parade on Sunday, May 20, on a float sponsored by Banner Bank. The Junior Court will also appear in the Junior Parade on Saturday, May 19.
