SIUSLAW CLAIMS TWO STATE TITLES

Early success breeds future success. And if this year's state performance by the Siuslaw track and field team is any indication, the Vikings can expect great things for the future.

Two track members, sophomores Ryan Rendon-Padilla and Hannah Rannow, each brought home the state crown in their respective events — Rendon-Padilla in the javelin and Rannow in the 800 meters.

Rannow also placed fifth in the 300-meter race

(10:40.14) over the weekend.

Rendon-Padilla launched a personal record throw of 181 feet, 7 inches for the javelin title; Rannow won the 800 event with a PR as well, finishing in 2:18.54.

A total of five Siuslaw athletes scored points for the Vikings during last weekend's two-day state meet at historic Hayward Field in Eugene, competing in what was the final high school state meet to be held at the facility before construction of the new Hayward Field begins, possibly as early as the fall.

It was a fitting end to the careers of the team's only three seniors to reach state, throwers Trent Reavis and KC Tatum, and para-racer Josh Payne.

Reavis, who was sidelined most of the season while healing from knee surgery, came in late and managed to secure a place at state in the shot put, eventually landing fourth at 51-10.5. Tatum threw the discus 133-9 to take eighth in the 4A.

Payne, making a return to state, finished with a pair of personal bests, placing second in the para 1,500 meters (5:13.85) and third in the para 400-meter race (1:16.87.)

Sailors' Spencer leads PR, fourth in high jump

By NED HICKSON
Siuslaw News

Though the Sailors track team was dominated by underclassmen this season, what it may have lacked in experience it made up for with enthusiasm and hard work.

"I was extremely happy and impressed with our young team," said Mapleton head track coach Johnny Sundstrom, who returned to the helm this season. "I think what we saw this season, and with what we have coming in from the middle school next season, bodes well for our program."

Even the team's lone senior, Cole Spencer, was a relative new-comer, competing in only his second-ever 300-meter hurdles event at district a little over a week ago. Still, he managed to place second and qualify for state with his time of 6.8.

Spencer also placed second in the high jump at district, tying the top leap but landing second due to the number of attempts to clear 5 feet, 8 inches.

But at state, the lone Mapleton senior improved his best mark by 2 inches, tying for fourth place with a mark of 5-10. Jack Lehnerr of Pacific also tied for fourth.

Spencer went on to run the 300 hurdles, setting another PR with a time of 6:46, but falling short of the finals.

men Phillip Burnett in the 110-meter hurdles, Jozzy Roby in the 1,500 meters and JJ Neece in the triple jump.

While none came home with a top-five finish, each placed among the 12-best in the 1A within their respective events.

Burnett ran a time of 21.69 in the 110HH preliminaries but fell just short of reaching the finals.

In the triple jump, Neece cleared

36-07.5 to place ninth overall.

Meanwhile, Roby ran a time of 7:09.75 in the 1,500-meter race to take 12th individually for Malpeton.

"It's been a great season for us," Sundstrom said. "We have a lot to grow on, a lot to look forward to and something solid to build on for next year"

WELL, WHAT A GRAND RHODY DAYS!

Hope you all had a fun time. The coronation was fabulous. What talent we have in our kids. The Rhody Run had a good turnout. I came in 5th in my age group, even though I just walked! The corn dog was a disappointment but the curly fries were sinful. The rides were fun, although a friend that went on the one that went upside down looked a bit green afterwards. Then to top it all off, the parade was just great! It's a wonderful town we live in, no wonder people want to move here!

Next stop... Memorial Day!

Be safe and enjoy!
