

Unitarian Universalists consider 'dual law of thought' this Sunday

On Sunday, June 3, from 10 to 11 a.m., at the Florence Unitarian Universalist Fellowship (FUUF), the Rev. Marcia Pearce will lead the worship service titled, "The Dual Law of Thought."

Pearce said, "There are a few great laws that govern all thinking, just as there are a few fundamental laws in chemistry. We are all well aware that controlling our thoughts is key to moving ourselves in our own desired direction."

"We also know how difficult it can be to 'dismiss' a thought directly, but what we think upon — grows. This is an Eastern maxim and it sums up rather neatly one of the most fundamental of all the laws of mind. We can use these 'laws of thought' to enhance our spiritual growth, and thus our very livingness."

The fellowship, 87738 Highway 101 at Heceta Beach Rd., is wheelchair accessible.

Each service concludes with refreshments and a dialogue circle to explore the questions that come up during each worship service.

DAR honors Woody Woodbury for community Service

Recently retired Grocery Outlet owner Woody Woodbury was presented with a Community Service Award by the National Association Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Oregon Dunes Chapter at the group's May 25 meeting.

Woodbury was chosen for this award to honor his many areas of volunteer service to the Florence community.

In addition to currently serving on the Florence City Council and Siuslaw Valley Fire and Rescue Board of Directors, he served as past president of the Florence Area Chamber of Commerce, director on the Florence Urban Renewal Agency, past director for Florence

Food Share and volunteer for Habitat for Humanity and the Oregon Coast Humane Society. Woodbury also served on committees for Food Backpack for Kids and the Boys and Girls Club of Western Lane County.

In addition, he helped sponsor the Children's Winter Music Festival Concerts and supports the Veterans Day Parade and the Oregon Coast Military Museum.

"Although he serves the community in many ways, Woodbury never seeks accolades," said DAR member Jacquie Beveridge. "Oregon Dunes Chapter was honored to acknowledge him for his unselfish contributions to our community."

DAR is dedicated historical preservation, promotion of education and encouragement of patriotic endeavors.

Any woman 18 years or older, regardless of race, religion or ethnic background, who can prove lineal descent from a patriot of the American Revolution is eligible for DAR membership.

Women interested in membership can contact Karen Childs with the Oregon Dunes Chapter at 541-997-7154, to attend a meeting as a guest.

Spirituali-Tea to host night of music Monday

Almost every Monday evening for the past 18 years, community members have gathered together at 875 Seventh St., the Heintz home, to discuss matters of the Spirit.

Previously called "Soup's On" and now called "Spirituali-Tea," the group will host an evening of music this Monday, June 4.

People are invited to bring CDs, records, music programs and almost any device that holds that special song.

The group will talk a little about each sharing and enjoy an evening of music.

In addition, the Spirituali-Tea group will also read the prayer requests left in the Prayer Pole in the garden of the Florence Playhouse and those of all who attend.

Tea, coffee and cookies will be offered at the 6:30 p.m. meeting.

For more information, call Suzanne Mann-Heintz at 541-590-0616.
